Garden Club Urges Planting Of Crepe Myrtle - Forsythia

Taking Orders at Nursery Prices Until Saturday, April 1

In an effort to encourage planting of forsythia and crepe myrtle in town, the Edenton Garden Club is now taking orders for these beautiful plants. The Club is making no profit on these sales, being interested only in the beautification of Edenton. The prices quoted are exactly what is charged by the nursery, being 50 cents for forsythia two to four feet, and $1.50 for crepe myrtle of three to four feet.

Anyone interested in buying these plants for their gardens may telephone Mrs. J. A. Moore, president of the Club, some time before Saturday, April 1, at which time she will place the order.

Edenton Band To Play For Big Affair In Tarboro April 11

Local Group Will Lead Parade For Connie Mack Day

C. L. McCullers, director of the Edenton High School Band, has received and accepted an invitation to take a prominent part in Connie Mack Day to be held in Tarboro on April 11. Aubrey Shackell, a former Edentonian and now editor of The Tarboro Southerner, communicated Friday with E. W. Spires in the interest of having the band play. Mr. McCullers was reluctant to accept due to several engagements already which will keep members out of school, but after consulting school officials the invitation was accepted.

The local band will lead the parade in connection with dedication of a greatly enlarged athletic field, which will be attended by Governor Clyde R. Hoey and Connie Mack, veteran baseball manager and famous for his Philadelphia Athletics teams. Featuring the event will be a game between the Athletics and the Williamsport, Pa., team. Mr. McCullers has been guaranteed 12 tickets to the game to be given to drivers of automobiles who carry as many as four members of the band, and any who will assist in this particular are urged to notify Mr. McCullers at once.
