

AT ST. PAUL'S

REV. C. A. ASHBY, Rector
Bishop Darst will visit this Church Sunday, June 4, to confirm. Confirmation classes every Sunday afternoon in May in the Church at 4 o'clock. Mr. Ashby would like the names of those wishing, at this visit of the Bishop, to receive confirmation.

By vote of the young gentlemen, Miss Sally Dixon was named May Queen at the dance last Friday night. She will reign for one year and until her successor takes office over St. Paulites, and all such will pay her proper respect.

Vestry meeting Monday night at 8. Report will then be made on what this parish has done on the diocesan debt, how we are getting on financially and otherwise, ascertainment of what delegates will attend diocesan convention in Fayetteville, meeting next Tuesday at 5 P. M., and extending through Wednesday. Bishop Darst will be in charge, and matters of interest will come up. St. Paul's usually has a full representation. The delegates are E. R. Conger, D. Minton Warren, J. A. Moore and John W. Graham, with C. P. Wales, Julien Wood, Fred P. Wood and Hector Lupton as alternates. Hospitality will be afforded those wishing it. At 11 A. M. Tuesday morning at Fayetteville. John Sterling Armstrong will be ordained to the diaconate. He will be placed in the diocese by the Bishop.

We draw near the end of the Sunday School session, and are indebted to Mr. Ernest Swain and his staff of officers and teachers for the fine service they have rendered. A picnic will be in order very soon, and doubtless it will be held at Eden House Beach as heretofore. Mr. Swain will be in charge.

Camp Leach will open in June. Literature will soon inform us of the dates for the different ages, who is in charge, and so on. This camp affords a cheap and wholesome recreation for boys and girls, and is open to any wishing to go.

The Guild has had painted and papered three rooms in the rectory, much to the delight of the occupants. This is much appreciated.

Termites will not be discussed at the vestry meeting, as they have been for about the past six years. The Hon. William Reaves West, with the aid of Fred Wood's spray gun and some mixture, has carried on such vigorous warfare under the Parish House against the insects that they appear to be leaving for other premises. Some, we have heard, are calling on our good brother, the Methodist Preacher. Trust he enjoys them, but doubt if he does. Our senior warden, Mr. E. R. Conger, isn't one bit fond of them.

Diocesan journals show that this Church was consecrated December 1 or 2, 1839, by Bishop Ives. Might be a good idea to recognize this fact next December by some celebration. Bishop Darst can give us December 10, he writes, and as this is near date, he can tell us much about the old parish. He has a very full set of records and histories of the diocese, and should be able to dig up information of worth. Think it over. St. James, Wilmington, has just made quite an event of their 100 years of consecration. We go back to 1701, but had no bishops back there to do the consecrating.

With the Baptist and Methodist ministers buried in Cool Springs Churchyard, Gates County, Monday afternoon only Episcopalian we had in the Eure neighborhood. One said to me that Episcopalians were a rarity about there.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS HOSTS TO T. E. L. CLASS AT FISH FRY

The T. E. L. Class of the Edenton Baptist Church were guests of honor at an enjoyable fish fry at Eden House Beach on Friday evening when the Men's Bible Class of the Church entertained them and a number of other guests. The perfectly fried rock were served with cole slaw, hot coffee and bread.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

On Monday, March 13, Chowan Tribe, No. 12, Improved Order of Red Men, was shocked by the sudden death of Brother William Morris, a beloved member of the fraternity. Brother Morris had been in ill health for many months, but before his illness was one of the most loyal members of the Tribe.

In his transition from a world of sorrow, pain and disappointments to the Happy Hunting Ground, Chowan Tribe realizes the loss of a loyal brother and true Red Man, for as long as he was able he attended his lodge regularly and was ever ready to perform any tribal duty which was thrust upon him.

Be it therefore resolved, that in his passing Chowan Tribe has lost a valuable member; his family a kind and loving husband and father and his community a good citizen.

Resolved further, that the Tribe dedicate a page in its records in memory of him, that a copy of these resolutions be spread thereon, and a copy tendered his family in token of our respect and sympathy; and a copy be published in The Chowan Herald.
