

Death Claims Mrs. Martha Umphlett

Funeral Held Friday at New Hope Largely Attended

On Thursday morning about 7 o'clock, death claimed Mrs. Martha Umphlett at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Boyce, with whom she had lived for the past several years. Mrs. Umphlett was the widow of the late Charney Umphlett, prominent Perquimans County farmer, and despite her 87 years of age she was very active until three years ago when she had the misfortune to fall and break a hip, since which time she has been an invalid.

While living in Perquimans County Mrs. Umphlett endeared herself to her neighbors and the community by her unselfish usefulness and service. She was an exponent of old Southern womanhood wherein she derived a peculiar sense of happiness in sacrifice and hardships for the welfare of those more unfortunate whom she knew and loved.

Despite extremely cold weather, a large crowd of friends attended funeral services Friday afternoon. The services were held at the New Hope Methodist Church with the pastor, the Rev. J. O. Cranford, and the Rev. W. C. Benson, pastor of the Edenton Methodist Church, officiating. Interment was made at New Hope.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. A. C. Boyce and Mrs. J. S. Jackson, of Edenton; Mrs. W. E. Dail and Mrs. Monroe Nurney, of Perquimans County, and a son, D. C. Umphlett, of Perquimans County. A sister, Mrs. R. L. Spivey, and two brothers, S. P. Matthews and Ned Matthews, all of Perquimans County, as well as a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren also survive.
