

Clean-up Week Held At Colerain

Woman's Club Enjoys Very Interesting Program

Colerain Woman's Club held its monthly meeting last Wednesday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock in the club room. Mrs. L. A. Perry, president, presided. Mrs. W. E. White announced a cancer control campaign and asked for help in this worthy cause. Mrs. James White told that $7 will be offered Colerain school children for outstanding work in the art exhibit to be held in the school on Friday night. Mrs. L. D. Perry expressed delight at the rapid progress of the Community House. And Mrs. Clarence Beasley reminded all citizens that the coming week is to be "Clean-Up Week" for the community.

The program was planned by Mrs. W. E. White, Welfare Department chairman. Miss Ida Townsend, Colerain school teacher, gave an impressive talk on "Child Training in the Home, Community and Schools." Mrs. W. T. Parrott, wife of the Superintendent of Caswell Training School of Kinston, told members of unbelievable facts about that wonderful school, and Miss Hughes, craft director, displayed beautiful handwork that the inmates there make and sell.

The hostesses of the afternoon served an iced drink and cakes.

HARE—CREECH

A wedding of much interest to friends and relatives took place on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Virginia Browning Creech became the bride of James Thomas Hare. Mrs. Hare is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Creech, of Norfolk, Va. Mr. Hare is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hare, of Edenton.

The vows were spoken in the First Christian Church in Norfolk, Va., with the bride's pastor officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her father and her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Robert Stevens. The groom had as his best man his cousin, Cecil Ashley.

The bride was beautifully dressed in heavenly blue with navy accessories. Her corsage was of roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a suit of navy blue with white accessories and carried Talisman roses and lilies of the valley. Immediately after the reception at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left Norfolk, motoring to Edenton for a short visit with the groom's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Hare left Edenton Sunday for Tampa, Fla. Upon their return they will be at home at 810 Bainbridge Blvd., Norfolk, Va.

The bride is a graduate of Norfolk College and holds a position at Paul's Oldsmobile Company. Mr. Hare is connected with the Naval Base, being on police duty with the gate force.

Chowan Classroom Teachers Hold Meet

The Chowan Classroom Teachers' Association met at Oak Grove School on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Miss Marian Fiske, president of the Association, called the meeting to order and the minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Mary Davis Nixon. Regular routine of business was transacted and the report of the treasurer, Mrs. J. I. Boyce, was presented.

This meeting, contrary to the previous ones in which educational talks were the chief features of the entertainment, was in the form of a purely social gathering. An original geographical contest was the high light of the meeting. This contest was prepared by geography students of the eleventh grade of Chowan High School and besides being entertaining was decidedly thought-provoking and educational.

Refreshments, consisting of chicken salad sandwiches, hot coffee, pickles and individual cakes, were served by the Oak Grove school faculty.

STUDY CLASS MEETS

A study class of the Woman's Missionary Society of Ballards Bridge Baptist Church met Saturday afternoon with Mrs. N. E. Jordan at her home near Ryland. Mrs. Harriett Parks led the devotional and Mrs. D. T. Ward was in charge of the study period. After an interesting meeting the hostess served ice cream and cake.

The next meeting of the group will be held with Mrs. Harriett Parks of near Gliden.

THE WORLD'S FINEST Oil Range...

is PERFECTION with High-Power Burners

This porcelain enameled "table-top" range has oven burners mounted on a slide that draws forward for easy lighting. This slide with burners and fuel reservoir can be lifted out and (with folding stove frame shown here, available at small extra cost) can be used as an extra 2-burner stove for laundry, canning, etc. Range may be had with or without cooking-top cover, lamp, timer, and condiment set shown here.

Oven Burner Assembly and Folding Stove Frame

If you prefer it we can also supply the Perfection porcelain enameled cabinet range with oven above cooking-top level. Also a variety of smaller Perfection Stoves—from one to four High-Power burners—and portable Perfection "Live-Heat" Ovens for use with them.

Come in and see them, and let us demonstrate the marvelous High-Power burners.
