

Red Men Officers Installed Monday

Ernest L. White Now Sachem of Chowan Tribe

New officers who will serve for the remaining six months of this year were installed for Chowan Tribe of Red Men at the regular meeting Monday night, with J. Edwin Bufflap, district deputy Great Sachem, officiating.

The officers installed were: Sachem, Ernest White; senior sagamore, Percy Smith; junior sagamore, William Israel; prophet, C. H. Barber.

The new sachem made the following appointments: First sannah, Noah Goodwin; second sannah, Eric Haste; guard of the wigwam, W. A. Munden; guard of the forest, Russell Cobb; warriors, J. H. Asbell, Earl Goodwin, Clayton Hollowell, Lloyd Parrish; braves, Willie Saunders, J. P. Perry, W. E. Bunch and John Parrish.

Funeral Held For Mrs. Roxie Nixon

Mrs. Roxie Nixon died at her home in the Rocky Hock section of Chowan County Monday of last week. She was 63 years old and had been in ill health for several years.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Tuesday afternoon, with her pastor, the Rev. Frank Cale, officiating. Interment followed in the family burying ground.

Mrs. Nixon was a life-long member of the Rocky Hock Baptist Church and took an active part in its affairs until her health prevented. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. I. D. Jordan and Miss Bessie Mae Nixon, of Chowan County, and three sons, H. R. Nixon, of Winston-Salem, Herman and Levy Nixon, of Chowan County. Two sisters, Mrs. L. A. Goodwin, of Hertford, and Mrs. Jesse Nixon, of Chowan County, and several grandchildren also survive. Pallbearers were: Mark White, Carey Evans, Everett Wilson, Ellie Bunch, Will Pierce and Will Harrell.

JUNE TAX COLLECTIONS

ACCEPTS NEW POSITION

J. Vann Holloman, who for the past four years has been stock room manager at the H. O. White Ford Company, has accepted a similar position with the Ahoskie Ford Company. His family will remain in Colerain for a while.

No department store in the world ever had such private detectives as those portrayed by Harpo, Groucho and Chico Marx in "The Big Store," fast and furious comedy coming to the Taylor Theatre, Edenton, Monday and Tuesday. Tony Martin and five lavish new musical numbers add to what is hailed as the merriest entertainment treat of the year. Here the "private detectives" are familiarizing themselves with some of the wares in the toy department. You can imagine the result.

Holmes And McCullers At Rotary Assembly

John A. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McCullers returned Sunday night from Chapel Hill, where Messrs. Holmes and McCullers attended the district Rotary Assembly held at Carolina Inn. The Assembly was in session Saturday and Sunday and the local Rotarians report a splendid meeting.

COLERAIN BOY SCOUTS HAVE SUPPER AT COLERAIN BEACH

Tuesday evening at seven o'clock, the Colerain Boy Scouts, headed by Franklin McCreery and Charles Roebuck, served a chicken barbecue supper at Colerain Beach to twenty Smith-Douglas office workers of this division.

The money that was made from this supper will go towards a cabin which the boys are planning to erect this fall. Leader of the Colerain Scouts is Edgar Stokes, Jr.

COLERAIN W. M. S. MEETS

The Woman's Missionary Society of Colerain Baptist Church held its regular meeting at the church on Friday afternoon.

Chairmen of the various departments gave their respective reports. These reports showed that all departments are doing good work. The president asked that all members be prepared to give as liberally as possible to a fund for Chinese Relief at the next meeting.

The Anne Judson Circle rendered a very impressive and beautiful missionary program, having as its subject "God's Gifts and Our Responsibilities." Miss Caroline Brinkley had charge of the devotional. Miss Jean White sang "Satisfied with Jesus," being accompanied at the piano by Miss Rosalind Holloman. Mrs. Elizabeth Vick gave a talk on "Our Contributions to the World."

MRS. BEASLEY HOSTESS
