Money and honey—Bob Hope wins both in his zany role in "Nothing But the Truth," at Taylor Theatre, Edenton, today (Thursday) and Friday. That green, lettuce-y stuff is the money; the honey, of course, is beautiful Paulette Goddard, who co-stars in the new film.

Employers Urged List Employment Needs At Once

State Employment Agency Cooperating In Securing Jobs

General J. Van B. Metts, State Director of Selective Service, in a recent release to the local Selective Service Board, urges all employers in North Carolina, especially those who have pressing need for additional help, to immediately list their employment needs with their nearest State Employment Office.

"All cases of unemployed ex-service men, or those who desire new jobs, are referred by Selective Service local board reemployment committees to the State Employment Office," General Metts said.

All returning soldiers are instructed to get in touch with their local board reemployment committees as soon as they reach their homes. In the meantime, the committees will have received complete data concerning each man—his civilian occupational skill or aptitude, training and experience, and his military record. This information also is sent to the State Employment Office, which will cooperate with the local board reemployment committees and employers to see that each man is placed in the job for which he is best fitted and most needed.

School Ground Trees Treated By Expert

Trees on the Edenton school grounds have been trimmed as well as dead wood and mistletoe removed, the work being done by C. C. Huie, tree expert from Statesville. Mr. Huie has recently finished working on the trees on the Capitol grounds at Raleigh, and will return later in the winter to work on trees for the Town of Edenton.

RURITAN CLUB MEETS

The Colerain Ruritan Club observed Ladies' Night Tuesday with the Agricultural committee in charge of the program. Frank McCreery, chairman, presented three Master Farmers named by the committee: W. K. Lawrence and L. E. Farless (trading as Lawrence and Farless) were named from the larger farmer group. N. J. Miller was named from the small farmer group and Cohen Perry from the tenant farmer group. Judge W. H. S. Burgwyn of Woodland, was guest speaker, using as his subject "Youth and the Trend of Times." A large attendance was present.

Library At Colerain Observes Book Week

Colerain's small but up-to-date library proudly observed National Book Week November 2-8, using the slogan "Forward With Books." The library was made attractive with an array of book posters, reviews of best sellers and many new books. These books had been purchased primarily to stimulate more interest and to invite new readers to enjoy the pleasures of reading. Miss Helen Phelps, librarian, reported that an unusually good circulation had resulted and that over a hundred visitors called during the week.

Colerain with a population of only 300, can be justly proud of this worthwhile project in its midst. The library serves not only the town, but the whole community, and adults as well as children are enjoying its wholesome benefits.

Look into the Last Mile—FIRST

MAYBE it's a little hard to picture this trim Buick as it will look on that unknown day when you come to turn it in.

There may be scars in its fenders, and use-stains on its upholstery—but the thing that matters is it'll still be going great guns.

You can count on that husky valve-in-head straight-eight to be ticking off the miles with the satisfying efficiency it now boasts.

You can rely on Compound Carburetion† to hold your gas-costs down, squeezing every last power-packed mile out of the fuel you burn.

There won't be any loss of easy comfort in those all-coil springs, or any need for care to keep them gentle.

As for such things as connecting rods and bearings—Buick rods are extra strong, while tests show that our oil-cushioned bearings last twice as long as others under the same load and service.

So go right ahead! Buy Buick on its last mile instead of its first.

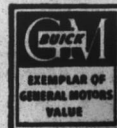

If you can get one now, you'll be smart to grab it!
