

Soldier Meets Soldier, But Meeting Is Costly

Late Saturday night an Army convoy was held up in Edenton, when one of the trucks figured in a wreck on West Queen Street. The accident occurred when James M. Cashwell and several other soldiers on leave were returning to Langley Field, Va., their car colliding with the Army truck driven by James Macagona.

Cashwell's car was badly damaged after hitting the truck, and he sustained deep cuts about the face.

After investigating the accident, Sergeant George Dail placed Cashwell under arrest, preferring charges of driving while drunk as well as reckless driving.

Debnams Entertain For
Mr. and Mrs. Cheers

Mr. and Mrs. Ep Debnam entertained Saturday afternoon at a cocktail party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas V. Cheers, Jr., of Richmond, Virginia.

Approximately 70 guests called between the hours of five and seven o'clock. They were received at the door by Mrs. Thomas Cheers, Sr. Christmas decorations were carried out in the rooms and red candles attractively placed provided a mellow light.

Mrs. Thomas B. Wood and Mrs. George Wood poured punch.

WILL YOU HELP?

Because long distance lines must be kept open in these critical days for use of our Government, the armed forces and others engaged in war activities, we ask that you limit your Christmas long distance telephone calls to those that are truly necessary.

If you do call, please be brief, and place your call by number, if possible.

This Christmas we expect a very heavy load of calls. We will do all we can to handle the rush, but calls to many places will be delayed, and some will not get through.

We hope you will understand and cooperate with us.
