Almost 100 Attend Rotary Club's Farmers' Night

Close to 100 farmers and Rotarians gathered in the Community Building at Cross Roads Thursday night to observe the Edenton Rotary Club's farmers' night when farmers from every section of the county were invited as special guests. The meeting was a delightful affair throughout, with a sumptuous turkey dinner served by the ladies of the Chowan Woman's Club and a program arranged which delighted all who were present.

Above is pictured Hod Williams and his Bluebird recording orchestra, who will furnish music for Edenton's Christmas dance to be held in the Armory on Christmas night. The orchestra has just completed an engagement at Fay's Southern Grill in Macon, Georgia, where they were acclaimed very highly. Featured with the orchestra will be the beautiful voice of Miss Kay Howard, whose vocals have won praise from both young and old. The dance will begin at 10 o'clock Christmas night, and is expected to attract a large crowd from every section of the Albemarle.

C. L. McCullers, president of the Rotary Club, presided at the meeting, with the Chowan Trio, composed of Mrs. Gordon Blow, Miss Louise Wilson and Miss May Belle Edwards, rendering special music. C. E. Kramer was in charge of a number of stunts which provoked plenty of merriment from the crowd.

Service Club Enjoys Christmas Dinner

County Agent C. W. Overman pleased the group with a solo, singing the popular old song, "I Dream of Jeannie With the Light Brown Hair." The principal address was made by the Rev. Frank Cale, who talked on "The Meaning of Christmas," which was followed by a Christmas reading by Miss Beulah Perry.

Mrs. Percy Smith gave a toast to the members of the Woman's Club for their service, which was responded to by Mrs. E. L. Winslow. The meeting closed with all singing "God Bless America."
