Noah C. Ward Dies Following Operation

Chowan Contractor Succumbs In Elizabeth City Hospital

Noah Cecil Ward died in the Elizabeth City Hospital late Wednesday afternoon of last week, where he had been a patient for ten days. Mr. Ward succumbed to complications which developed following an operation for appendicitis. He was 69 years old and had been in ill health for the past few years.

A native of Chowan County and a member of one of the oldest families in the County, Mr. Ward came to Edenton about 20 years ago to make his home. For many years he was a contractor, his services being much in demand throughout the years. Surviving are his stepmother, Mrs. H. N. Ward of Ryland, two brothers, Norfleet Ward of Portsmouth, Va., and Nathan Ward of Aulander; two sisters, Mrs. John Eason of Wilmington, and Mrs. Locke Mitchell of Harrellsville; two half sisters, Mrs. T. J. Hoskins and Mrs. A. L. Midyette, and three half-brothers, Julian Ward and Ernest Ward of Edenton, and Randolph Ward of Ryland. A short burial service was held at the graveside in the family burying ground on the homeplace near Ryland Friday afternoon, the Rev. John Byrum, pastor of Ballards Bridge Church, officiating.

Colored Births Lead Whites In February

Colored births again led white births in Chowan County during February, according to figures released by the local office of the Bertie-Chowan Health District. During the month there were 12 colored births and 10 white, while five Negroes died compared with two whites. One colored stillbirth was also reported.

From where I sit...
by Joe Marsh

Happened to me yesterday. I'm sneaking with my cartogest it started, when a soldier stops alongside. "Need some help?" he asks. And I learned if that soldier wasn't young Charlie Jenkins from Elm Street. You wouldn't know him after six months in the Army. Fifteen pounds heavier—straight and tan and real sure of himself. The Army's done a lot for Charlie—like it has for lots of other fellows.
Now I read how some folks worry about the soldiers havin' a glass of beer occasionally. After seein' Charlie, I don't think there's cause to fret.
Just like Charlie says—"If you can trust us with guns and ships and tanks, I guess you can trust us with a glass of beer once in a while."
And I know the beer industry is cooperating with the Army to see that beer is sold in good, clean, decent places.
