Freeze On Peanuts Is Replaced By OPA Ceiling Regulation

Prices Established to Be Paid For Farmers' Stock

Maximum prices for peanuts—from the farm right down to the consumer—have been established by the Office of Price Administration in a regulation which, while putting the first price control on peanuts at the farm level, replaces a temporary December "freeze" at other levels, according to information received by the Growers Peanut Cooperative, Inc., agency which handles the peanut program in the Carolinas, Virginia and Tennessee.

Under the regulation—effective February 27—the maximum price per ton, f. o. b. local shipping point, which growers may charge for farmers' stock peanuts are: Virginia Type, Grade U. S. Nos. 1 and 2 (classes A and below), $176; Virginia Type, Grade No. 3 (Classes A and below), $168; White Spanish Type, all grades, $169; Runner Type, all grades, $154. The grades and types are those of the USDA.

The effect of the maximum price regulation will be to cut prices on shelled peanuts back from 1/4 to 1/4 cents per pound under those prevailing at the time of the freeze and to reduce prices at the farm level below those which have been existing on the market although the farm maximums, established in collaboration with the Department of Agriculture, are above 100 percent of parity.

Market conditions just prior to the December "freeze" were unusual and make it impossible for OPA to predict exactly whether the regulation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neal salted peanut prices, but it is expected that there will be no substantial change in the market as a whole.

Bonner Distributing Valuable Pamphlets Pertaining To Food

Congressman Herbert C. Bonner has for distribution in his district a 16-page booklet entitled "Victory Gardens," which may be had by simply dropping a card to his office in Washington, D. C.

"We all realize the necessity to produce all food possible this spring, summer and fall, both for home and foreign consumption," says Mr. Bonner. "With the present rationing of canned food, and more to come next winter, everyone with available space, whether living in town or in the rural districts, should plant a garden."

Mr. Bonner also has two other bulletins pertaining to drying foods for victory meals, and home canning of fruits, vegetables and meats, which he will be glad to send to anyone who is interested in securing them.

He urges every man, woman and child to produce all food possible this year and believes the booklets at his disposal will be of benefit to every person in his district.

Negro Faces Charge Assaulting Daughter

William Vicks Held For Superior Court Without Bond

In Recorder's Court Tuesday morning were a varied number of charges ranging from drunk and disorderly to the more serious charge of criminal assault.

William Vicks, colored, faced the latter count, being charged with criminally assaulting his 14-year-old daughter. Damaging evidence was presented against Vicks, so that Judge Marvin Wilson found probable cause and sent the case up to Superior Court and ordered the defendant held without bond.

As a result of a fracas involving James Drew, William Beasley and James Gilliam, the three were charged with assault with deadly weapons, including knives and bricks. All were held for the next term of Superior Court, Drew's bond being $150, while a bond of $100 each was set for Beasley and Gilliam.

James William Yarborough faced a charge of assault with a deadly weapon and being drunk and disorderly. He was found not guilty on the first count, but guilty of the latter and ordered to pay the cost of court.

Important Changes In Calculating Price Of Many Food Items

Two important changes have been made by OPA relative to control of retail prices of a large list of staple foods such as canned vegetables, sugar, cereals, dried fruit, lard, coffee flour and other items.

The time within which retailers are permitted to calculate new prices on the basis of new invoice costs has been extended to May 1, 1943. At the same time all requirements for the filing of reports by retailers operating under this regulation have been abolished. In the place of such reports retailers will simply be required to show the calculation for a new maximum price on the invoice and to segregate and preserve such invoices for inspection or examination.

Both of these changes will be welcome news to all food retailers. They have not only been relieved of the responsibility of making detailed reports but will also be able to calculate new prices for items on which there have been recent increases at the processors level.

Most All Sewing Machines

That have passed ten years old, Regardless of their names

Or by whom they were sold, Have loosened up somewhat

And therefore they make noise

That detract very much

From the seamstresses joys.

Besides in some cases

Heavy oil has been tried

Which has gummed them up so

They run like they were tied,

So they need a good cleaning

And tightening up, too,

In a great many cases

Just that much work will do.

Sometimes they need timing

Or their tensions set right

So the stitches will not

Be too long nor too tight;

What ever it may be

That sewing machines need,

There is a mechanic

Who can fix them, indeed.

Now, if yours needs repairs,

Why not give him a ring?

He gives satisfaction

Before charging a thing.

Call 2-W and ask

For Mr. Hal N. Spence,

Address: 208—W.

Queen St., at present tense.

Remember this: One stitch in time,

According to the age-old rhyme,

Will save for you the loss of nine

And this is true in any line.—H. N. S.
