

Revival Services On Chowan Charge

Series of Meetings Are Announced by Rev. A. L. Stephenson

Revival services are being held during the month of August at the Methodist Churches on the Chowan Charge, according to the pastor, the Rev. Arthur Stephenson, who extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend.

Services are being held this week at Evans Methodist Church each night at 8:30 o'clock. The Rev. A. L. Thompson, of Ahoskie, is doing the preaching. Services will close on Friday night.

The revival at Anderson Methodist

Church, near Hertford, will begin on Monday night of next week. Beginning Tuesday afternoon services will be held during the afternoon as well as at night. The revival will close the following Sunday night.

Revival will be held at the Center Hill Methodist Church the third week in August each night from Monday through Friday. The Rev. M. E. Cotton of Poplar Branch, will do the preaching.

Revival services at Bethany Methodist Church, near Belvidere, begin the Fourth Sunday night in August and closes the Fifth Sunday night. The Rev. J. W. Hoyle, retired Methodist minister, and D. C. May, prominent Baptist speaker, both of Durham, are expected to be present for this meeting. Afternoon and night services will be held with the possible exception of Monday afternoon.

Have something to say; say it, and stop when you've done. — Tryon Edwards.

It Ain't No Fun ... Standing Up All The Way

Be Smart! Stay At Home This Week-end

Don't let anybody tell you it is fun traveling these days . . . it "ain't no fun" . . . when you have to stand up the entire distance of your trip.

But that is what is happening many times, especially during week-ends, when lots of people are traveling to resorts and beaches for an outing, crowding buses to capacity. It's not fun when you board a bus and find no seats . . . just standing room.

But that is how it is . . . and it can't be helped. There isn't a possibility that we can get additional buses to ease the increased demands on our service. So, we must ask your cooperation.

It would be swell if we could add a lot of extra buses to take care of the increased travel over our routes. We did it for you when it was possible, but this is out of the question now.

Office of Defense Transportation governs the number and mileage of our buses and thus with extra heavy traveling during week-ends, our buses are usually taxed to capacity.

We suggest that you travel only when it is absolutely necessary . . . then be sure to plan your trip well in advance. Consult our Bus Agent nearest your home for complete travel information as to schedules least crowded, arrange for your ticket ahead of time and travel light. When you board a bus take only one piece of luggage. This saves time and trouble for us and worries for you.
