

Overman Urging Lespedeza Crop For Best Pasture

One or More Acres on Every Farm Recommended

"Good lespedeza is one of the cheapest livestock feeds on the farm," says County Agent C. W. Overman, pointing out that lespedeza is one of the most outstanding pasture crops for late spring, summer and fall grazing in this area. "The Kobe variety," says Mr. Overman, "will perhaps give the best grazing and the Korean is the next best adapted variety to this area."

"Lespedeza should be sown in February or certainly the first few days in March—now is the time to sow. Broadcast 30 to 35 pounds of seed per acre on new pastures or old pastures that have practically no lespedeza in them. To re-seed pastures where a partial stand of seed is believed to be present, use 20 to 25 pounds of seed per acre."

"Lespedeza may be sown on a well-prepared seed bed covered very lightly by brushing in or it may be left uncovered. Seeding on established pastures may be done by lightly discing the pasture before seeding or most of the seed will germinate when sown in February on unbroken pastures."

"For milk cows, work stock, hogs and poultry, lespedeza is an excellent grazing crop. Every farm should have one or more acres sown for good lespedeza grazing next summer. A local supply of seed is available. Let's sow lespedeza now for green pastures next summer."

Mrs. John C. Bass, Sister Of Mrs. L. S. Byrum And Miss Inez Felton, Dies

Mrs. John C. Bass, 54, died at her home in Colerain Saturday, February 17, at noon. After several months of ill health, she gave up the battle and her sweet spirit took its flight to the more friendly world where her Master no doubt stood upon the shore and welcomed His own.

Mrs. Bass, the former Miss Cora Felton, was born in Chowan County November 9, 1890, the daughter of the late William B. and Betty Perry Felton. At the age of nine she moved with her family to Bertie County and for the past 45 years she has made Colerain her home. On December 20, 1911, she was married, and from this union two daughters survive, Miss Cora Felton, former music teacher of King's Mountain, and Mrs. Henry Britt of Colerain.

Mrs. Bass was a member of the Colerain Baptist Church, her loyalty and devotion, her tender love for the church and its congregation seemed a part of her sweet nature. The world is unaware of the numberless deeds of loving kindness bestowed by her generous hand to the needy, not only in a material way, but encouraging words and kindly sympathy showing forth from her honest, fearless eyes were an inspiration to the depressed and weary-hearted.

During her darkest hours of affliction no murmuring word escaped her. Realizing her failing health and strength, she expressed that "I am ready to go, and not afraid," that in accord with her Master's will the final summons came. Grand and beautiful testimony of a Christian life—a life of exceptional usefulness. Her family, as well as many others, "will arise up and call her blessed" while the influence and example of her noble life, and her sweet spirit of loving kindness will long remain as an inspiration to her loved ones.

Besides her husband and two daughters, she is survived by one brother, L. P. Felton of Colerain; three sisters, Mrs. G. W. Baker of Colerain and Mrs. L. S. Byrum and Miss Inez Felton of Edenton; one half brother, R. F. Felton of Waynesboro, Va., and two granddaughters, Misses Jackie and Nancy Britt of Colerain, and a large number of nieces and nephews and relatives throughout Bertie and Chowan counties.

Funeral services were conducted from the Colerain church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with the Rev. P. T. Worrell, her pastor, in charge. The church was crowded with mourning friends who came to pay their last respects to a departed friend. The choir sweetly sang "Rock of Ages" and "Safe In the Arms of Jesus." The floral designs were beautiful and choice, typical of her beautiful life. Burial was made in Hill Crest Cemetery at Colerain.

Active pallbearers were Dr. C. S. Credle, W. J. Tankard, Carl Sessoms, C. W. Beasley, H. O. White and M. L. Brinkley.

Honorary pallbearers were Joe Harrell, Harry Barnhill, D. R. Britton, C. R. Brinkley, C. E. Wade, L. A. Perry, L. D. Perry, J. M. McCallum, J. K. Spruill, Bennett Darden, N. A. Hughes, Carl Jackson, Curtis

Wilson, Talmadge Forehand, Joe Jenkins, Ed Stokes, Shelton Pierce, Graham Harrell, W. D. White, Jim Thompson, Bill White, Leo Wynne, T. D. Askew and Dr. L. A. Nowell.

How to stab yourself in the back

You don't have to have three arms, or even be a contortionist.

All you have to do is grab a War Bond of yours and cash it in. When you do this, you do yourself more harm than you realize.

You throw away the best investment in the world today. You lose the chance of getting four dollars for every three when your Bond matures. You forget how handy that War Bond will be in a few years—when maybe you'll really need some money.

And when you cash in that Bond you're hurting Uncle Sam too. You're taking your valuable dollars out of the fight at a time when your country needs those dollars badly.

So don't give in next time you feel a spending spree coming on. Instead hang onto the Bonds you have, and buy another to be still safer!
