

Governor Appeals For Army Nurses

Sacred Duty of State to Help Treat Wounded Heroes

In a letter to Governor R. Gregg Cherry, asking that he exercise his leadership, Chief of Staff, George C. Marshall, General of the Army, urged that seven platoons, or 105 women, be recruited immediately from North Carolina to be trained as members of Women's Army Corps General Hospital Companies.

"With army casualty lists steadily mounting and because of the critical shortage of doctors and nurses in Army hospitals, the only final source of potential aid is from women between the ages of 20 and 49," said Governor Cherry.

"It is North Carolina's sacred honor and duty," continued the Governor, "to help restore the health of these wounded heroes, many of them our own Carolina boys, and I know our women will never fail these men as they are again called upon to fight—this time a difficult rehabilitation struggle—the Battle of America."

"In the name of all North Carolina women, I have accepted this assignment from General Marshall, and fervently hope that our State will be the first in the Union to fulfill our quota."

In an effort to secure volunteers from Chowan County, Sgt. Robert Burkhardt, WAC recruiter, will be in Edenton today (Thursday) and Friday. He will be at the post office, but if he is missed, names may be left at the post office or any information may be secured by writing the Army Recruiting Station, Post Office Building, Wilson, N. C.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them! Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out. Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance. The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.
