MORRIS-TAPP

The marriage of Miss Ann Dell Tapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace K. Tapp, of Yokima, Wash., to George Ephraim Morris, AMM2-c, of Tyner, took place Sunday afternoon, February 25th, at 3 o'clock, in the First Christian Church in Yokima, Washington.

The Rev. Orval D. Peterson read the double ring ceremony before a background of lovely spring flowers, with invited guests numbering 300.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of white satin fashioned with long sleeves and train. Her fingertip veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She wore a diamond lavalier and like her attendant, carried a white Bible and a bouquet of pink camellias and rosebuds.

Little Miss Sherry Krachuines, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Krachuines, of Seattle, Wash., was flower girl, and Harold Everson, a cousin of the bride, was best man.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Mae Samuels sang the wedding solos, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Lora Clockson, who also played the wedding marches.

Mrs. Tapp, mother of the bride, wore a floor-length black dress and her corsage was of camellias.

Mrs. Morris is a junior at the University of Washington and, after a short wedding trip, the young couple will be at home in Klamoth Falls, Ore., until Morris returns to sea duty, at which time his bride will return to the University.

Morris is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George N. Morris. He enlisted in the Navy in July, 1942. He has had a year and a half of sea duty and for the past 15 months has been stationed on the West Coast, where he is doing a splendid job with the Fighting Sqd. No. 36.

Bus Topples Over Fill At Williamston

All of 32 Passengers Taken to Hospital For Treatment

One of the Norfolk Southern buses crashed over the narrow bridge at the fill on this side of the Roanoke River, near Williamston, Tuesday afternoon. On the bus were 32 passengers, all of whom were taken to the Williamston hospital and treated for minor bruises, lacerations and shock, none of which were reported as being serious.

According to reports, the bus was passing three log wagons drawn by horses and when passing, one of the horses became frightened, causing the wagon to swerve and catch under the bumper of the bus, throwing it through the bridge rails.

J. G. Campen Killed In Automobile Wreck

citizen, having performed many duties in the interest of Edenton and Chowan County. At the time of his death he was chairman of the Chowan County War Finance Committee and under his leadership the county has met and exceeded its quota in the six War Loan drives already held. He had organized an efficient group of workers who worked hard and faithfully and he took special pride in what they had done in the various drives. Just before leaving Edenton he spoke to The Herald editor, saying that though he had not been advised of the county's quota in the forthcoming Seventh War Loan, he was very soon going to get his group together and plan to raise the quota, whatever it might be.

Mr. Campen was a former member of the General Assembly, having been elected in May, 1940, to represent Chowan County in the House of Representatives, and won many friends while he held the office. At the time of his death he was a director of the State Merchants Association and had served as president of the local Chamber of Commerce and Merchants Association. He was a charter member of the Edenton Rotary Club, a former deacon of the Baptist Church, a member of Unanimity Lodge, No. 7, A. F. & A. M., and was past master of St. John's Lodge, No. 4, at Kinston, before affiliating with the local Masonic lodge.

For many years Mr. Campen took a very active part in the civic life of the community, being found prominently connected with practically every movement for the welfare of the town and county.

Mr. Campen was 67 years old, being born in Beaufort County and reared in Washington. As a young man he went to Hertford, where he was engaged in the lumber business and while there married Mrs. Campen, the former Miss Ida Ward. He then went to Kinston to continue his work in the lumber business and later he entered the jewelry business. Twenty-four years ago he moved to Edenton, where he has successfully operated Campen's Jewelers.

Aside from his wife, deceased is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Skinner Jordan of Elizabeth City, three sons, Joseph Campen of Jacksonville, Fla., and H. Allison and Sidney S. Campen of Edenton. His mother, Mrs. Jesse Campen, of Hertford, also survives, as well as a sister, Mrs. Harry Clark of Washington, D. C., and six brothers, Howard and Charlie Campen of Wilmington, N. C., Callie Campen of Richmond, Va., Jesse Campen of Norfolk, Va., Don Campen of Portsmouth, Va., and James Campen of Hertford.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Baptist Church with the pastor, the Rev. E. L. Wells officiating. A Masonic service will be held at the graveside.
