

Arlene Jackson Weds Dr. Robert Fallis, Jr.

Impressive Ceremony In St. Paul's Church on December 28

The marriage of Miss Arlene Gilliam Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin W. Jackson, to Dr. Robert

E. Fallis, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Fallis, of Madison, Wisconsin, took place on Friday morning December 28, at 11 o'clock at St. Paul's Episcopal church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold W. Gilmer, rector, in the presence of relatives and friends.

The historic church was decorated with a background of palms and southern smilax, flanked with burning white tapers, with a beautiful arrangement of calla and Easter lilies on the altar. Mrs. John Ross played traditional wedding music and Mrs.

Frank Wood Elliott sang, "First Love."

The bride entered with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a pink gabardine dressmaker's suit, a pink feather hat and wore python accessories. Her flowers were white orchids, which topped her white satin prayer book.

Miss Evelyn Brown of Edenton who was maid of honor, wore an electric blue satin dress with matching hat and a corsage of pink and white roses.

Dr. Martin Wisely, also of Edenton, was best man.

The mother of the bride wore a moss green dressmaker's suit, with a mink stole and brown accessories. Her corsage was of purple orchids.

Mrs. Fallis attended Washington University, at St. Louis, where she majored in music and art, and where she was a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority. She later was graduated from the New York University School of Nursing at Bellevue hospital.

Dr. Fallis received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Wisconsin, and his M. D. degree from Northwestern University, where he was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Both Dr. Fallis and Mrs. Fallis have recently been separated from service in the Army Air Corps, where he served as captain of the Medical Corps, and she as first lieutenant in the Army Nurses Corps.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip. They will reside in Madison, Wisconsin.

sence of a few relatives.

The bride was attired in a light blue suit, with brown accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses.

The ring service was used. Their only attendants were H. E. Bass, brother of the groom, of Willis, Michigan, and Mary Ida White, aunt of the bride, of Merry Hill.

After a wedding trip to Georgetown, S. C., and Myrtle Beach, S. C., they are residing at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Bass.

The bridegroom has recently arrived home from the E. T. O., where he served 20 months. He received a honorable discharge November 7, 1945.
