Johnnie Saunders Hits Tin Pan Alley With New Song

50% of Earnings Pledged to Crippled Children Hospitals

"I'm Wandering Around," a song in the popular vein penned by Johnnie Saunders, 1036 Larchmont Crescent, Norfolk, was played and sung on the "Songwriters On Parade" program Monday evening at 10:30, aired over radio station WWRL (1600 kilocycles) in New York. "I'm Wandering Around" is Johnnie's second song to be made public, the first, "Tonight In Dreams" having been published under royalty contract by the Nordyke Publishing Company, Hollywood, Cal., in 1945, piano copies of which are now available at the music stores. Fifteen per cent of Johnnie's net earnings from "Tonight In Dreams" have been pledged to Unanimity Lodge, No. 7, A. F. & A. M., towards construction of a Masonic temple in Edenton and 25 per cent in April. support of the crippled children hospitals. This song is currently being featured in the smooth flowing rhythm style of Freddy Johnson and except Sunday at Hotel Monticello, Starlight Room, Norfolk. Fifty per cent of Johnnie's net earnings from 'I'm Wandering Around" will be assigned to the crippled children's
