

H. A. Campen Awarded Honorary Membership By Masons In Hertford

Twelve Edenton Masons went to Hertford Thursday night to attend the 125th anniversary of Perquimans Lodge, No. 106, A. F. & A. M., at which meeting H. A. Campen, District Deputy Grand Master of the Second District, was honored by being conferred honorary membership in the Hertford lodge. The honor was bestowed upon Mr. Campen for his many years of work in this section and because of a long line of ancestors who were members of Perquimans Lodge. The certificate of honorary membership was very ably presented by G. C. Buck, after which Mr.

Campen in a few well chosen words expressed his appreciation for the honor and the consideration of the Perquimans brethren.

At the same time a group of Hertford Masons were presented 25-year membership certificates and recognition was also made of W. F. C. Edwards, who has been a Mason 55 years.

A very interesting program was arranged for the occasion with J. S. McNider in charge.

The Edenton Masons attending the affair were H. A. Campen, the Rev. W. C. Francis, Richard Baer, C. H. Wood, John Lee Spruill, Benjamin Henry Smith, W. P. Goodwin, W. O. Elliott, Thomas H. Strohecker, Clarence Yeingst, Jack Mooney and J. Edwin Bullap.

You can be your own rich uncle if you stick with the payroll savings plan.

No trusting to luck, then—the future you want can be yours. The home you hope to buy, a college education for the kids, money for emergencies, or travel, or retirement—you're sure of them if you keep on buying U.S. Savings Bonds regularly!

Millions of Americans learned just how easy it was to save money with payroll purchases of War Bonds. And the new Savings Bonds are no different.

They pile up just as fast. They're just as safe, for they're backed by the U. S. Government. And they're just as smart an investment—in 10 years you'll have $100 for every $75 you save today.

So, if you're in the Payroll Plan, stay in! If you're not, get in! It's the easiest way you've ever seen to have a "rich uncle!"
