Comdr. and Mrs. Bert H. Creighton Remember Stay In Edenton

Edenton friends will be interested to know that Comdr. and Mrs. Bert H. Creighton are now located in Seattle, Washington. In a letter to The Herald's editor, Comdr. Creighton, former commanding officer of the Edenton Naval Air Station, said he and Mrs. Creighton feel very badly about leaving Edenton. "We loved the place, the people and everything," he wrote. "The silver service presented to us will remain one of our most cherished possessions always."

After leaving Edenton the couple drove to Pittsburgh, Pa. "We wanted to go over the Skyline Drive as recommended by 'K. B.' Davis, so we headed that way. The drive was completely obscured by fog, so we were forced to drop over the mountains in the Shenandoah Valley. This drive proved very interesting and picturesque. The brilliant colors of fall still reigned in the woods. It was extremely interesting to me, for I had been away from the country, where seasonal changes occur, for many years."

After leaving Pittsburgh Comdr. Creighton went to Washington, D. C., where he was ordered to go to Cleveland, Ohio, to put on the Navy exhibit of the National Aircraft Show. He went to Great Lakes to round up a working party and information is to the effect that the show was immense, very interesting and informative.

Proceeding to Pittsburgh, Comdr. Creighton met Mrs. Creighton and later in Memphis his son, Ensign Bert Creighton, Jr., who accompanied his parents to Seattle prior to leaving for duty in the Pacific.

"We had clear skies and smooth sailing until we hit Oregon," wrote Comdr. Creighton, "then came the rains, floods and snow which gave us a rugged time. Finally after logging 4,700 miles from Pittsburgh, we arrived at Seattle tired and homeless, so we bought a home since people think you insane if you think you can rent a home here."

In concluding his letter, Comdr. Creighton requested The Herald to extend their regards to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Conger, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Harrell, Mayor and Mrs. Haskett and "just all of our friends there in Edenton."
