Carlton Will Resume Radio Broadcasts

Peter Carlton is also known in the writing field and his columns appeared frequently in the Daily Advance, the Independent and The Chowan Herald. They were entitled "Albemarle Scouting," "Scouting Around," "Scouter of the Week" and "Tomorrow's Citizens." He writes a column now for The Chowan Herald entitled "Scoutin' Around."

In his writing, talking and dealings with people, Mr. Carlton brings into play a wide background of experiences, understanding and compassion for his fellowman, and he is not adverse to going "all out" when he believes in the righteousness of a cause, according to friends who know him intimately.

Carlton has been writing since he became a member of the LaSalle Military Academy yearbook staff, back in 1928. In college he was sports editor of the College Yearbook, the Kanakadea of Alfred University. He belonged to the Samuel Johnson Literary Society at the University of Alabama when he was in attendance there in 1931. He has written many poems and one which received much attention was one written in defense of mothers-in-law.

He acted a small part in one of the first movie productions ever made back in 1922, when the industry frequented the heights of Fort Lee, New Jersey. His father was a "med-showman" and travelled the country with Indians and cowboys. Carlton says he'll always remember old Frank Canoe, an Iroquois Indian, who took a fancy to him and was always showing him how to do Indian dances. He also did a few "bit" parts on the "med-show" stage.

One of his religious articles written for young people during the war appeared in the Christian Science Sentinel, entitled "The Army Chaplain."

Mr. Carlton did extensive prison work as a social worker in the Brooklyn City prison, the Ellis Island detention quarters for aliens and the Governor's Island Military Prison.

during the war. He claims a most extensive friendship with people from all over the country.

According to Mr. Carlton, the programs will contain news items, comments and personality slants, mainly about our own county folks. The program is sponsored by J. H. Conger, consignee of Texaco Products, Campen's Jewelers and Albemarle Restaurant.

CHAS. H. JENKINS MOTOR COMPANY
TO GIVE BEAR AUTO ALINEMENT SERVICE TO STOP TIRE WEAR AND BAD STEERING

Chas. H. Jenkins Motor Company, who is operating a garage at 105-109 East Queen Street, has just installed the complete set of gauges and tools used in the BEAR SYSTEM OF WHEEL ALIGNMENT. This is the method used and recommended by practically all important automobile manufacturers, because it is the most accurate method known and the only system that returns every car and truck to original factory specifications so that it steers like new.

No feature of automotive service has come so prominently to public attention during the past few years, as the maintenance of alignment in the front-end and wheels. This is because the combination all-the-year driving and higher speeds created a need for a service that would insure reduced operating costs and greater degree of motoring safety.

Perhaps the most frequent source of trouble is a slight bend or twist of the front axle or knee units which throws the wheels out of line and scrapes the tires sideways along the road. It also causes wandering, weaving, and bad steering.

An essential feature of the new BEAR EQUIPMENT is the fact that it includes special hydraulic devices for straightening bent or twisted axles and knees, in the car by cold process, which does not affect the temper of the metal nor weaken the front suspension. By correcting these parts in the car, it saves the car being tied up for days while such are removed for straightening.

A. E. Jenkins believes that offering such a device to Edenton motorists is a real forward step in accident prevention, and that use of the service will also save motorists many dollars in the tire replacements. The new service is now ready.
