Edenton Colonials On Another Winning Spree

Buck Wheeler's single scored Leary and Bohonko. A run in the ninth resulted when Joe Wheeler and Vick singled. Leary sacrificed and Fulghum walked, filling the bases. Wheeler scored on Bohonko's fly.

Hertford scored a run in each of the third and fourth innings and two each in the fifth and sixth.

Bo Bell was on the mound for Hertford, but was relieved by Brigman in the fourth.

Edenton 4, Elizabeth City 8
Thursday night of last week the Colonials lost their first game of the season to the Elizabeth City Senators on the latter's diamond 8-4. Vick was on the mound for the Colonials and was touched for 13 hits, while Sawyer for the Senators gave up only seven hits.

The Colonials scored a run in the first inning when Joe Wheeler walked and Bohonko beat out a grounder. Leary sacrificed and Wheeler scored on Fulghum's grounder to second.

The Colonials staged a rally in the eighth, but was short of evening the count. Three runs were registered when Askew was safe on an error, Joe Wheeler singled and Bohonko walked, filling the bases. Askew scored on Leary's grounder and then Fulghum singled to score Wheeler and Bohonko.

The Senators tied the score 1-1 in the third and went ahead by a run in the fifth. Their big inning came in the sixth when four counters were chalked up and for good measure two more runs were made in the eighth.

Edenton 2, Suffolk 1
In Suffolk Friday night Jobe Griffin was in rare form, for until the ninth inning after two men were out, he allowed only three scattered hits throughout the game. In the final frame, however, he developed a streak of wildness, when he walked in Suffolk's only run. He was replaced by Vick, who retired the last batter.

Archer was on the mound for Suffolk and also pitched a splendid game, allowing only seven hits. McLawhorn and Fulghum each made two of the safe bingles. Cosmidos made two of Suffolk's three hits.

Edenton 4, Suffolk 3
Suffolk threw a scare in the local camp Saturday night when the Colonials managed to nose out 4 to 3. The visitors scored two runs in the first inning on one hit and three errors, and with Schadel, visiting hurler, apparently in good form, prospects for a victory were not very bright. However, in the third the Colonials solved Schadel's slants when Bohonko and Leary singled and Fulghum doubled which, coupled with a walk by Bell, netted three runs. Schadel was replaced by Holland in this inning, who gave up only three hits the remainder of the game.

Suffolk tied the score at 3-3 in the eighth when Holland singled and Alexander hit a terrific triple in deep right field. In the Colonials' half of the fifth when Griffin singled and Askew was safe on an error, Vick flied out, after which Joe Wheeler and Bohonko singled, and Leary doubled. Colerain in their half of the fifth again knotted the score by registering three runs.

Again in the seventh the Colonials tallied three runs. Buck Wheeler was hit by a pitched ball and Bohonko walked. McLawhorn doubled to score two runs and crossed the plate himself on Byrum's single. Colerain added a run in each of the seventh and ninth.

Edenton 4, Colerain 2
The Colonials on Hicks Field Monday night again turned back the threatening Colerain outfit in a thrilling game 4-2. Lester Jordan was on the mound for Edenton and while allowing only seven hits, he was given gilt-edged support by his teammates. DiLorenzo started on the mound for Colerain, but after yielding two hits in the first inning, retired in favor of Harrington, who finished the game.

Edenton scored a run in the first. Joe Wheeler walked and Bohonko flied out. Leary singled and Wheeler was caught at third. Fulghum then singled and McLawhorn walked, filling the bases. Byrum also drew a free pass, scoring Leary. Griffin fanned to end the scoring threat. In the second another run was scored. Jordan singled and was caught at second on Joe Wheeler's grounder. Bohonko singled, scoring Wheeler. In the fifth a double by Leary and a single by McLawhorn resulted in another run. Bohonko added another run in the seventh when he hit over the left field fence. Leary, next up, tripled against the fence between left and center, but was caught at the plate on McLawhorn's grounder to third.

Colerain scored both runs in the fourth when Fairless was safe on an error. Fowler fanned and Fred Castello singled. Batchelor grounded out. Rudy Castello singled, scoring two runs.
