Sluggers Split Games Over Past Week-end

Edenton Sluggers, local colored baseball team, split two games over the week-end, losing to the Winton Bees in Winton on Sunday 11-10, and turning back the Buckland Braves of Gatesville 6-2 on Hicks Field Monday night.

In Winton the Sluggers were leading 8-3 in the eighth when Pitcher Paul Gregory developed trouble with his arm and the Bees had a scoring spree. Brickhouse was called in to finish the game.

Buster Banks had little trouble on Monday night with the Gatesville outfit, and was given very good support by his teammates.

The Sluggers are scheduled to play the Ahoskie team on Hicks Field Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The play is sponsored by the colored Woman's Club for the benefit of the colored playground, so that it is hoped a capacity house will be on hand to enjoy the entertainment.

Colonials Continue Winning Streak

The Colonials scored one run in the first when Leary doubled after two men were out. He scored on Fulghum's single. Five runs were scored in the fourth giving the locals a lead of 6-3 until the seventh when the visitors scored a run. In the eighth, however, they scored four runs, one of which was a home run by Jack Bell. The Colonials threatened to tie and win the game in their half of the ninth. Buck Wheeler doubled and was caught at third on Jordan's grounder. Joe Wheeler walked and Leary singled. Fulghum was purposely walked filling the bases, but the necessary hit was not produced.

Edenton 3, Windsor 2

In Windsor Thursday night rain called a halt to the Colonials-Rebels game in the sixth inning when Edenton was leading 3-2. Herman Vick was on the mound for the Colonials with veteran Ted Miller working for Windsor. Two home runs featured the scoring, one by McComas for Windsor and one by Bohonko for the Colonials.

Edenton 11, Elizabeth City 4

The Colonials fattened their batting average Friday night on Hicks Field at the expense of the Elizabeth City Senators, when 13 hits were secured off Timm, Edwards and Copley. Timm was greeted with a single by Joe Wheeler, a double by Bohonko, a triple by Leary and a double by McLawhorn in succession in the first inning, which caused him to be relieved in the second inning. The four hits netted three runs. The Colonials added two more in the second, two in the fourth and four in the eighth. The final score was 11-4. Copley relieved in the eighth.

Joe Wheeler led the hitting spree with four hits, followed by Leary with three.

Heath, a new southpaw from Cape Charles, Va., was on the mound for Edenton and gave up 10 hits.

Edenton 11, Hertford 2

Hertford used four pitchers Tuesday night in an effort to stop the Colonials, when the latter won 11-2. Brigman started the game but was relieved by Gilkerson in the fifth. Gilkerson lasted only two innings when Taylor was sent to the mound in the seventh. The latter was yanked in the same inning after two hits netted one run and only one man was out. Wilson finished the game.

The large crowd of fans went wild in the fifth inning when Buck Wheeler hit a home run over left-field fence. Jordan then fied out and Joe Wheeler, next up, apparently not being willing to be outdone by his brother, also sent the ball sailing over left field fence for another home run.

The Colonials went on a spree in the eighth when one hit, coupled with five Hertford errors, netted six runs. The Indians made nine miscues during the game.

Lester Jordan, on the mound for the Colonials, gave up five hits, but had things right much under control for all the hits were pretty well scattered.
