

Miss Jeanette Habit Bride Of L. M. Dowd Wedding Solemnized In Catholic Church Sun- day Afternoon

In a very impressive ceremony in St. Ann's Catholic Church Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, Miss Jeanette Teresa Habit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Habit, became the bride of Lawrence Michael Dowd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Dowd of Springfield, Mass. Father A. J. Racette of Wilson officiated, assisted by Father F. J. McCourt, rector of St. Ann's Church. The double ring ceremony was used.

The church was beautifully decorated with white California chrysanthemums, pine, magnolia leaves, palms and candles. The wedding music was rendered by Mrs. W. H. Coffield, which included Lohengrin's and Mendelssohn's Wedding Marches. Miss Julia Burton sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" and "Lord Who at Cana's Wedding Feast."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin wedding gown with deep marquisette yoke edged in leaflets of seed pearls and bertha of lace. The fitted bodice extended to long sleeves which fell to points over the hands. Her full skirt formed a wide sweeping train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was arranged to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book covered with a white orchid and showered with stephanotis.

Miss Julia Habit of New York, cousin of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a venetian gold taffeta gown of period design with scalloped trim. She carried a purple orchid bouquet. Miss Cecelia Dowd of Springfield, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Catherine White of Norfolk as bridesmaids wore gowns of hyacinth blue like that of the maid of honor and carried bouquets of yellow roses and baby breath. All attendants wore matching ostrich tips in their hair.

Betsy Craddock, niece of the bride, was flower girl and carried a basket of mixed flowers. Charles Hollowell, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer and carried the ring on a white satin pillow in the center of a white chrysanthemum.

James R. Houlihan of Springfield was best man and the ushers were Jack and Frank Habit, brothers of the bride. The bride's mother wore an indigo blue gown with black accessories. Her corsage was white roses. The mother of the bridegroom wore an aqua dress with black accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on North Broad Street. The home was attractively decorated with gladioli and chrysanthemums. In the dining room the table was decorated with California white asters and white chrysanthemums, centered with a three-tier wedding cake. During the reception many friends called at the home, where punch, cake, ice cream, nuts and mints were served. Guests were greeted at the door by Miss Adelaide Tuttle and were registered by Miss Freda Habit. Mrs. Paul Holoman presided at the punch bowl, Mrs. Ernest Swain cut the wedding cake and Miss Marjorie Miller, Mrs. Claude Griffin and Mrs. Charles Carter served. Mrs. Herbert Hollowell presided in the bride's room, where gifts were displayed.

Following the reception the newlyweds left on a motor trip to Canada, after which they will make their home in Edenton. For traveling the bride wore a green suit with black accessories and wore a white orchid from her prayer book.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Dowd of Springfield, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Maroon, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Craddock, Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Habit, Windsor; Miss Elizabeth Wozelka, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carter, Warren, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. James Cannon, Raleigh.

FIRST MASS IN PLYMOUTH IN 18 YEARS TO BE HELD SUNDAY

For the first time in 18 years and for the second time in the history of Plymouth, the Most Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered in the town limits at Horner's Funeral Home chapel, 214 Washington Street, Sunday, September 21, at 8 A. M., stated Father Francis J. McCourt, pastor of St. Ann's Catholic Missionary Parish, which includes Plymouth. Confessions will be heard in the funeral home office Sunday from 7:30 to 7:55 A. M.

About 18 years ago, a chapel railroad car of the Catholic Church Extension Society of America, with headquarters in Chicago, stopped for less than 24 hours on a railroad track within Plymouth limits and its accompanying chaplain said mass that morning, further stated Father McCourt, who has arranged lately with Mr. Horner to have Catholic services in the funeral home chapel on at least one or two Sundays each month, since the Catholic Church has no building in Plymouth.

Mass will also be offered as heretofore every Sunday at 11 A. M. in St. Ann's Catholic Church, Edenton, each mass coming Sunday including sermon on "Sacramentals," Holy Communion, concluding in 45 minutes, followed at once by Sunday School, with confessions in St. Ann's every Sunday at 10:30 to 10:55 A. M. Week-mornings: Mass, Communion and Rosary in St. Ann's. Father McCourt invites everybody to all services every Sunday.
