BEER—America's Beverage of Moderation

—As Do Good Friends—

SELF-REGULATION WEARS WELL!

Eight years should provide a good test—and the North Carolina brewing industry's Self-Regulation program is now that old.

Today, it stands stronger than ever. Good friends always "wear well" and Self-Regulation has proved itself a good friend to the public, the law-enforcement agencies, and those in the beer business.

Briefly, Self-Regulation is the system whereby the brewing industry makes sustained effort to see that places selling beer are clean, wholesome and law-abiding.

Your patronage of beer retailers living up to these high operating standards is our strongest support.
