

Carroll Speaker At Chowan PTA Meet

Baptist Minister Emphasizes Importance of Christian Education

"The greatness of America, the quality of the men and women, is the product of the home. As our children go, so goes the world. Parents must not be too busy to give the child the attention he should have." These thoughts were given by the Rev. R. N. Carroll, pastor of the Baptist Church, in his address to members of the Chowan Parent-Teacher Association on "Home's Responsibility of Citizenship." Mr. Carroll emphasized the importance of teaching children to respect authority, to have regard for freedom and the rights of others. He stressed Christian education in the home. "Character is molded and guided in the home. The church and the school cannot offset the evils learned in the home," he said. In the absence of the president and vice president, the principal, Mr. Nichols, presided at the business meeting. W. J. Taylor presented facts of the bond issue drive. Miss Bramm's first grade received the banner for having the most parents present.

Miss Mary Eliza White Weds J. Ralph Smith In Ceremony January 10

A beautiful candlelight wedding took place Saturday afternoon, January 10th, in the Edenton Baptist Church, when Miss Mary Eliza White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank White, became the bride of James Ralph Smith, son of Mrs. J. R. Smith and the late Mr. Smith of Terre Haute, Indiana. The double ring ceremony was used, with the Rev. R. N. Carroll, pastor of the bride and bridegroom, officiating.

Miss Agnes Chappell, church organist, rendered a program of nuptial music and Miss Julia Burton sang "Because" and "Always." The church was beautifully decorated with a green and white color scheme carried out to perfection and beauty. Miss White, who was given in marriage by her father, was attractively attired in a plain blue gabardine suit with black accessories and wore a shoulder corsage of purple throated orchids.

Miss Nelle Perry was maid of honor and wore a mulberry gabardine suit with navy blue accessories with a shoulder corsage of white gardenias. The bridegroom had as his best man Dennis Willy. Ushers were Alex, Sam and J. Frank White, Jr., brothers of the bride, and Wesley Chesson.

Immediately following the ceremony the immediate families and intimate friends were entertained informally by the bride's parents at their home on West Eden Street.

The newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Indiana, and upon their return will make their home in Hertford.

Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Edenton High School and attended Mars Hill College. Prior to her marriage she was employed at the Bank of Edenton. Mr. Smith is connected with the Cobb Construction Company.

A number of parties were given in honor of the bride prior to the wedding, hostesses being Miss Ruth Byrum and Mrs. Dennis Willy, Nelle Perry, Mrs. Scott Harrell and Miss Marie Goodwin.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear mother, Elvie Virginia Nixon, who died January 17, 1942:

No need to watch at the window, I say, or list at the door,
She has gone with angels forever,
where pain and partings are o'er.
We will try to bow in silence 'neath the willow that fell,
Knowing He whose hand doeth all things well,
And when our probation is ended, and when life's journey is through,
We hope to meet you, dear Mother, in those Heavenly mansions, too.
—Daughter Fatina.

CHILDREN... We Want Your PICTURES

Don't forget our invitation to have your pictures taken FREE and published in this newspaper. Remind your parents it costs them nothing!

We are having Wolts Studios, of Des Moines, Iowa, nationally known children's photographers, take your pictures expressly for publication in a new feature titled "CITIZENS OF TOMORROW."

Remind your parents that nothing need be subscribed to; they do not even have to be a reader of this paper. There are no strings of any kind! Every youngster in this trading area is eligible. There is no age limit. Extra prints may be obtained by arranging with the studio representative when the pose for publication is selected; but this, too, is entirely up to your parents.

Clippings of these pictures will become treasured mementos of childhood, so be sure to call on our photographer during the time mentioned below. We do not want a single local youngster to be disappointed. Appointments are NOT necessary, but one of your parents or another adult must accompany you.

Below is the time and place to have your pictures taken without cost!
