

Chowan Waters Not Included This Year In Fish Spawning Area

No Local Streams Will Be Closed During Summer

Game Warden Evans this week received information from Clyde Patton, executive director of the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission, relative to streams designated as spawning areas and will, therefore, be closed to fishing from May 1 to June 30.

According to information, there will be no closed season in Chowan County. The only designated areas in the First district are in Camden, Perquimans and Tyrrell Counties.

In Camden County the Dismal Swamp Canal from the mouth to the U. S. Government locks at South Mills, a distance of five miles, is affected.

In Perquimans County, the Perquimans River from N. C. Highway 37 bridge to head, a distance of nine miles.

In Tyrrell County, Alligator Creek from Newfoundland bridge to head, a distance of nine miles, and Riders Creek from the mouth on Scuppernon River to head, a distance of six miles.

Legion Auxiliary's District Meeting Friday, May 7th

Mrs. Floyd M. Chadwick Scheduled to Be the Speaker

Mrs. Paul Holoman, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, announced this week that a district meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held at the American Legion hut Friday, May 7. The meeting will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning with a complimentary luncheon scheduled to be served at 1 o'clock in the dining room of the hut.

All members of the Edenton unit who plan to attend this meeting are urged to notify Mrs. Holoman at the earliest time possible, and not later than Tuesday, May 4 in order to make proper preparations for serving the meal.

Greenfield Dairy Abandons Delivery Of Milk In Edenton

Church and Driggs Will Continue to Serve Routes

Milk customers have been notified by the Greenfield Dairy of Suffolk that, effective May 1, the concern will abandon milk distribution in Chowan, Bertie and Washington Counties. The Suffolk concern has been distributing milk locally since April, 1946, when it purchased the interests of M. W. Jackson.

Steps have been taken, however, to insure a supply of milk, for a new concern has been formed, the Albemarle Dairies. Connected with the new organization are Jimmie Church and Fulton Driggs, both of whom have had experience in the milk business. Their supply of pasteurized Grade A milk will be purchased from the Foreman Dairies in Elizabeth City, and deliveries made as heretofore.

The Greenfield Dairy expressed regret that it is impossible to continue distributing milk locally and solicit the patronage of their former customers for the new concern.

Employment Office Hours Are Changed

Mrs. Corie White, manager of the N. C. State Employment office, announced this week that, effective May 1, local office hours will be changed. Instead of being open from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M., the new hours will be from 8:30 A. M. to 4:30 P. M.

The new schedule will remain in effect during the summer months.

CITIZENS OF TOMORROW

Above appears another installment of "Citizens of Tomorrow." In the picture appear, top row, left to right, Peggy Goodwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Goodwin; Mercer Darden, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Darden; Betty Jean Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith. Bottom row, left to right, Brenda Deane Mooney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mooney; Donald Byrum, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Byrum and Avis Forehand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Forehand of Tyner.

Linda Ray Phillips, Walter Paul Herrin Lead Baby Contest

Climax Will Be a Tom Thumb Wedding on May 13th

Linda Ray Phillips and Walter Paul Herrin are respective leaders in the girls' and boys' groups of the baby contest being conducted by the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist Church. The contest will be climaxed with a Tom Thumb Wedding on Thursday, May 13, at the high school, at which time the winners in the contest will be crowned King and Queen.

The standing of the youngsters in the contest, with the number of votes accompanying the five leaders, follows:

Girls

Linda Ray Phillips 1,494, Rebecca Ruth Boswell 1,217, Sandra Bunch 766, Ellen Basnight 699, Emily Holmes 572, Suzanne Byrum, Irma Jean Goodwin, Brenda Mae Stallings, Mary Thorud, Ann Wells, Jo Ann Leary, Muriel Bateman, Vickie Allison, Jean and Joan Cayton, Hazel Harrison, Barbara Layton, Marian Lee Bunch, Patricia Byrum, Rena White, Frances Swain, Carol Griffin, Anita Sexton, Patsy Mooney, Frances Privott, Glenna Quinn, Lou Hoskins, Ann Shepard, Lucy Holton, Sharon Hare, Jean Holton, Diana Churn, Ida Campen, Mary Boyce, Betsy Campen, Jenny Jo Truslow, Patricia Bunch, Phyllis Twiddy, Sally Carr, Susan Holmes, Gail Perry and Sally Brotton.

Boys

Walter Paul Herrin 4,118, Danny Long 2,837, Bud Skiles 1,460, Walter Holton 1,126, Brad Williford 601, Jimmy Douglas Jones, O. L. Brown, Jr., Neal Hobbs, Johnny Byrum, Billy Freeman, James Wiseley, Dick Weeks, Tommie Parker, Louis George Wilkins, Jr., William Carroll Bunch, Edward Jenkins, Bo Lindsay, Richard Baer, Stevie White, Mercer Darden, Joe Mitchener, Arthur Baer, David Parks, Richard Hollowell, Jimmy Partin, Jr., Phil Harrell, Bill Cozart, Joe Vail Porter, Danny Brotton, Joe Debnam, R. B. Keeter, Carroll Goodwin, Jr., and Douglas Twiddy.

Rotarians Plan To Entertain 4-H Boys In Peanut Contest

Banquet Will Be Held at Boswell's Restaurant May 13th

Plans are going forward by the Edenton Rotary Club to entertain 4-H Club boys who participated in last year's peanut project. A banquet is scheduled to be held at the Boswell Restaurant on the night of Thursday, May 13, when it is expected most of the 27 boys and their fathers will be guests of the Club.

The committee in charge of the banquet is composed of Robert Marsh, Gilliam Wood and George Twiddy. At last week's Rotary meeting L. A. Patterson and David Warren were inducted as new members. The attendance contest has boosted attendance, and to date William and Frank Holmes, the two captains, are practically tied.

McMullan Named Representative To National Council

Executive Committee of Tidewater Council Holds Meeting

Over a chicken dinner attractively and deliciously served by Cherry's Restaurant last Thursday evening, the executive members of the Tidewater Council Boy Scouts of America met and discussed ways and means of bringing more of this wholesome activity to boys in this area.

Forrest U. Ross, vice president of the Virginia Electric & Power Company and president of the Tidewater Council, presided at the meeting. Scouters from Norfolk, Portsmouth, Virginia Beach, Princess Anne, Elizabeth City and Edenton attended the meeting. George S. Twiddy, chairman of the West Albemarle District, was host to the gathering.

During the meeting Philip S. McMullan, Sr., head of the Edenton Cotton Mill and outstanding Scouter, was elected unanimously to the honored post of Council representative to the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Harold Pace, Scout Executive and Bill Warren, Field Scout executive, represented the professional staff of the Council. Local members attending were Oscar Duncan, chairman of Advancement; Geddes B. Potter, District Commissioner; Charles Overman, Scoutmaster of Troop 156; Dr. W. S. Griffin, member of the Health and Safety Committee; George S. Twiddy, District Chairman, and Peter Carlton, member of the District Leadership Training Committee.

Mrs. C. P. Wales Will Be Speaker For PTA

Edenton's Parent-Teacher Association will meet Tuesday afternoon, May 4, at 3:15 in the school library.

Mrs. C. P. Wales will be the principal speaker and all members are especially urged to be present.

METHODISTS TAKE FIRM STAND AGAINST MILITARISM AT CENTER HILL CONFERENCE

Also Recommend That Industry and Total Resources of Nation Be Mobilized In Event Of Another War

An outstanding feature of the Methodist Conference held at the Center Hill Church last week was the adoption of resolutions aimed at militarism and means of preserving world peace. The Rev. W. L. Freeman, pastor of the Edenton Church, is chairman of the committee on World Peace and Temperance and presented the recommendations and resolutions.

"It is with a sense of the growing importance of the question of world peace and with an awareness of the shadows of potential disaster that hang over our heads at this moment in history that this report on world peace is submitted to this session of the conference of the Elizabeth City District," said Mr. Freeman. "We are deeply disturbed over the evident movement of the world toward another senseless conflict, and call the members of the entire Christian Church to repentance and to ceaseless intercession and supplication that the Eternal Father will look with com-

National Hospital Day Observed In Edenton May 12th

Chowan Hospital Will Be Open For Inspection During Day

The Women's Auxiliary to the Chowan Hospital met at the nurses' home April 21 and elected to observe National Hospital Day, May 12. On that date the hospital will be open for inspection from 2:30 to 5 P. M. and from 7 to 8:30 o'clock in the evening. Members of the Auxiliary will act as hostesses and guides, and it is hoped the public will inspect the plant and become familiar with their hospital and the services it offers to them and the community.

Mrs. W. D. Holmes, Jr., chairman, announced that Mrs. R. G. White has loaned a piano to the nurses' home for use as long as needed. A $5.00 Easter contribution by the American Legion Auxiliary was used for purchase of frogs for vases and replenishing wash cloths.

Mrs. J. W. Davis requested more flowers now that they are plentiful and asked that anyone having flowers for the wards call her.

Members were asked to save small screw top jars up to one quart size and collect them from friends. These are used to mail pathological specimens.

A committee, headed by Mrs. Charles Newcomb was appointed to make a survey of the hospital kitchen and report on its needs.

The group voted to suspend meetings during July and August with committees intact and functioning.

Red Men Move To Legion Hut At Base

Tribe Considering Purchasing Site as Permanent Home

Chowan Tribe of Red Men will the latter part of this week move its wigwam from the Bank of Edenton Building, which has housed the tribe for something like 35 years. The Red Men were requested to vacate due to the bank needing the room badly for storage purposes.

The tribe is contemplating buying a building for a permanent home, but until a definite decision is reached meetings will be held temporarily at the Legion hut. Permission to use a portion of the hut each Monday night was granted by the Legion Club this week, so that furniture and paraphernalia of the tribe will be stored in one of the vacant rooms and the weekly business transacted in the dining room portion of the building.

Members of the tribe are hereby notified that next Monday night's meeting will be held in the Legion hut and any member desiring transportation is requested to be in front of the Bank of Edenton by 7:30 o'clock.

MASONS MEET TONIGHT

Unanimity Lodge, No. 7, A. F. & A. M., will hold its regular meeting tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Auxiliary Speaker

MRS. FLOYD M. CHADWICK of Morehead City, Department President of the American Legion Auxiliary, will speak at the district meeting of the Legion Auxiliary which will be held at the Legion hut Friday, May 7.

B & P Women's Club Organized Tonight

Meeting Is Scheduled to Be Held In Library At School

That considerable interest prevails in the organization of a Business and Professional Women's Club in Edenton is reflected in the fact that in the neighborhood of 50 women attended a meeting Friday night in the high school library.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. J. D. Spillman, president of the Greenville Club, and Mrs. Chester Walsh, district president, both of whom outlined the program of a club and the fundamentals of the organization.

Mrs. T. B. Smith was elected chairman and Miss Rebecca Colwell co-chairman. Miss Mildred Munden was appointed chairman of the nominating committee, who will present a slate of officers to be voted on at the next meeting.

Another meeting will be held tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock in the library, at which time an organization will be effected.

All business and professional women of the community are urged to attend tonight's meeting in order to secure as many charter members as possible.

EHS Junior-Senior Banquet At Legion Hut Friday Night

Feature of Affair Will Be Grand March at 9:30 O'clock

Plans have been completed for the Junior-Senior banquet, which will be held at the Legion hut Friday night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The meal will be prepared by mothers of the Juniors and will be served by sophomore and freshmen girls.

Jack Habit will be toastmaster and the program includes a piano selection by Miss Julia Burton, invocation by Nick George, a song "Come to the Mardi Gras" by the Juniors, a toast to the Seniors by Miss Susan Thigpen, response by Bobby Byrum, solo by Miss Julia Burton, toast to the faculty by Jimmy Cates, response and farewell by John A. Holmes and singing.

Frozen Food Expert Will Be Here Today

Demonstration Planned At Hotel For Benefit Of Local Ladies

This (Thursday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Miss Irma Harding will present Mrs. Jean Creasy, noted food preparation expert in a demonstration of proper preparation and cooking of all types of frozen foods.

The demonstration will be held at Hotel Joseph Hewes and anyone interested is urged to attend.

The demonstration is sponsored by Byrum Implement & Truck Company.

Machinery Is Set Up For Primary Election In Chowan On May 29

L. S. Byrum Names Registrars and Judges of Election

Machinery was set up this week for Chowan County's Democratic primary election on May 29, when L. S. Byrum, chairman of the Chowan County Board of Elections, announced the appointment of registrars, judges of election and voting places for the six county precincts.

Registration books will be open May 1, 8 and 15 from 9 A. M. to sunset, and members of the Board of Elections urge any voter if he or she is not sure that their name is on the primary books to check with the registrar in his precinct.

Challenge day will be May 22 from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

There is only one contest for county offices, that being for Representative, in which J. H. McMullan and Eugene W. Perry are candidates. All other officers are unopposed with all the incumbents filing for re-election.

The registrars, judges of election and voting places as announced by Mr. Byrum, follow:

East Edenton: Registrar, Miss Sarah H. Jones; judges of election, W. P. (Speck) Jones and W. M. Wilkins. Voting place, Court House.

West Edenton: Registrar, J. J. Long; judges of election, Mrs. G. C. Hoskins and M. A. Hughes; voting place, Municipal Building.

Rocky Hook: Registrar, W. H. Pearce; judges of election, W. H. Saunders and Tom Tynch; voting place, Henry Bunch's store.

Center Hill: Registrar, R. H. Goodwin; judges of election, Ralph Goodwin and E. D. Byrum; voting place, same as last year.

Wardville: Registrar, G. A. Hollowell; judges of election, T. A. Berryman and C. J. Hollowell; voting place, G. A. Hollowell's store.

Yeopim: Registrar, T. J. Hoskins, Sr.; judges of election, H. A. Perry and T. J. Hoskins, Jr.; voting place, H. A. Perry's store.

Flower Show Held Friday Big Success

Nearly 100 Exhibits Entered In Outstanding Affair

Many visitors were agreeably surprised when they entered the former dining room of Hotel Joseph Hewes Friday where the Edenton Junior Woman's Club staged a flower show. Almost 100 exhibits were arranged in the room which brought forth the most complimentary comment. Not only were the flowers very beautiful, including many kinds, but the displays were artistically arranged.

Miss Martha McClenney won the grand prize, an engraved silver bowl, for her exhibit of Herbert Hoover roses.

Quality prizes went to Mrs. Sidney Campen and Mrs. T. E. Chappell. Mrs. Campen was awarded a blue ribbon for an iris arrangement, while Mrs. Chappell received a red ribbon for a Dutch iris arrangement.

In the most artistic arrangement group Mrs. Guy Hobbs, Mrs. T. E. Chappell and Mrs. Joe Truslow won blue ribbons. Mrs. Hobbs exhibited a yellow iris arrangement. Mrs. (Continued on Page Twelve)

Spring Training Ends For Baseball Teams

Last Group Left For Northern Headquarters Wednesday

Spring training periods for Binghamton, N. Y., and Manchester, N. H., baseball teams have come to an end, the Binghamton outfit having left Edenton Wednesday of last week and the Manchester aggregation left Wednesday of this week.

Both clubs hung up impressive records in exhibition games played, so that the managers of both teams headed homeward entertaining optimistic hopes for a strong club during the regular season. Conditions were favorable for spring training, so that there was splendid opportunity to discover the abilities of the many recruits who reported to make bids for berths on the teams.