Among those attending the statewide rally will be Senator William B. Umstead; his opponent, J. Melville Broughton; Charles M. Johnson, Kerr Scott, Wayne Albright and Oscar Baker, candidates for governor; H. P. Taylor, candidate for lieutenant-governor; Commissioner of Labor Forrest Shuford and others.

Cpl. Herbert Monds In Air Force Maneuvers

Corporal Herbert M. Monds is departing with his unit, the 376th AFB FA Battalion of the famed 82nd Airborne Division, Fort Bragg, for the Third Army-Ninth Air Force training maneuver which will take place in the Kentucky-Tennessee border region during the month of May.

Army and Air Force personnel from posts and bases throughout the seven southeastern states will assemble at Camp Campbell, Kentucky. The exercise will open with the 82nd Airborne Division paratroopers "hitting the silk" to establish and hold an airhead. These troopers will be closely followed by ground reinforcements moving overland to support this airhead.

The Army units will be in the field against the aggressor forces for a period of 20 days. The maneuvers will end in a four day all out offensive starting on May 24 when the Ninth Air Force and ground force troops combine efforts to drive the aggressor from the Camp Campbell area.

A large portion of the troops taking part will be operating under extended field conditions for the first time in their military careers. This exercise is expected to give them needed field experience.

Corporal Monds is the husband of Mrs. Virgie B. Monds, Route 3, Edenton.
