

C-D Drivers Nearing Deadline To Receive New Driving Permits

111,200 Persons In State Must Renew Before June 30

According to a report issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, since January 1, only 38,800 persons with surnames beginning with C and D have received their new driving licenses.

That means, Department officials pointed out, that some 111,200 persons in the State are going to face a lot of inconvenience in waiting in long lines unless they get their new driving permits during May. It is estimated there are around 150,000 drivers in the State with last names beginning with C and D.

The deadline on C and D renewals is June 30, but June is also the month when chauffeurs licenses have to be renewed. The Department said license examiners could be kept busy during June issuing nothing but chauffeurs licenses, and unless the remaining C and D drivers report to their examiners during the remainder of May, they may have trouble getting their licenses by the deadline.

Officials stated that there will be absolutely no extension to the time, and any C and D who puts off obtaining a new license must suffer the consequences of the law, which means that if he is caught driving on an old license after June 30, he will be found guilty of a misdemeanor and will be fined not less than $25.

The Department also stated that there will be no additional examiners added during the next two months to take care of the expected last-minute "rush", and added that persons who do not get their licenses immediately will have to suffer the ordeal of waiting in long lines.

State highway patrolmen will make spot checks along the highways after June 30, in order to comprehend any C and D drivers who have not obtained license.

Beginning with July 1, persons with last names beginning with E, F or G, will be re-examined until December 31.

George Alma Byrum On UNC Dean's List

George Alma Byrum, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Byrum, a student at the University of North Carolina, was among 75 students who made no less than B (90 to 95) in the University of North Carolina School of Commerce during the past quarter. Germans Write Letters To Junior Woman's Club

The better things you sent I gave to such persons that are too noble to ask for a dress or shirt in the publicity. I discovered few of them. Especially young ladies. To them the costumes fit, that was nothing for the children in the orphans home nor the old ones.

I hope you get my letters already. I didn't know your address before and wrote to Mrs. Wisely, Edenton. I wonder if the post found you.

Thankfully and sincerely,
HELEN DUSCHE.

Dear Mrs. Wisely:
Meanwhile the packages arrived containing pants, shirts, coats, pajamas, blouses, dresses, baby sweaters, bathrobes, evening dresses, shoes, gloves, men's suits, socks, cotton dresses, undershirts, children's sleepers, hats, slippers, coats, men's vests and slippers.

We are all enjoying them very very much, those who give and those who receive.

Today I'll send you a German written "thank you" of the lady leading person of the orphans' home. The children were so glad! Our nurse in the home for old people will write to you next time. Some of her men couldn't go on the street because of their lacking clothes. You did a lot for them. But your thinking of them is almost as much to them.

We would be very glad to know a little more of you and your club. Will you be so nice to write me a few notes of your work and coming together.

Give my thanks and love to them all.

Sincerely yours,
HELGA RUSCHE.

Dear Mrs. Wisely:
The last letter I'll write in the old year. I'll write to you and to the Junior Women's Club that sent me such a big joy for Christmas. And I wish you could be with me when I go into my houses as a real St. Nicholas. If you don't mind, I'd like to write you a letter telling particularly what I did with all the clothes. But today I just want to tell you what number I've gotten.

(The writer here lists six parcels and itemizes the contents.)

I am very sorry to tell that few things didn't arrive. I think the reason is the kind of packing. Almost all of them came here.

I will be writing to you soon again. Again very many thanks to the Junior Women's Club for your generosity and thoughtfulness to those who are in great need.

DR. HELGA RUSCHE.

WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

EDENTON METHODIST CHURCH

how much is enough?

We wish we knew. In spite of our best efforts, the demand for telephone service continues to exceed the supply of materials necessary to provide it. We have already installed a record number of telephones, but still more applications for new service continue to come in. All of our efforts are aimed at "balancing the scales"—to have installations keep pace with new applications. It takes time and money, but we hope before too long to keep up with this tremendous demand.
