

4-H Clubs Hold Final Meetings For Year

Health Score Sheets Discussed With Assistant Agents

The last regular 4-H Club meetings of the school year were held last week. At these meetings the Assistant Home and County Agents assisted the club members in filling out their health score sheets. These score sheets were filled out by the club members several months ago, at which time suggestions were made to the members as to how each one could improve his health habits.

out at the meetings will be used as a basis in selecting the club boy and girl who have made the biggest improvement in health during the school year.

High School News

BY NANCY MAE BOSWELL

A large crowd was represented at the Merrie Minstrel and Jubilee presented by the Lions Club. The minstrel was given for the benefit of the Edenton Band.

Last Friday the high school glee club presented a practice performance. Mrs. Mary Browning has charge of the Edenton High School Glee Club.

About 25 pupils journeyed to historical Williamsburg, Va., Wednesday with Cecil Frye as chaperone.

Candidates for the next session's president and vice president of the Student Council were nominated on Monday. Campaign speeches are to be given today (Thursday) and election is to be held Friday. Susan Thigpen, Aubrey Harrell, Calvin Mills, Charlotte Leary and Rhett Miller are candidates for president and Lucy Cofield, Morris Small, Earl Goodwin and Nancy Boswell are candidates for vice president.

It may not be polite but let us remind you that the human race does not exist for the profits of a few people.
