

Methodists Now In Midst Of Big Fund Raising Campaign

First Report of Drive Will Be Made Sunday Morning

Edenton Methodists are now in the midst of a fund raising campaign for the purpose of making absolutely necessary repairs and the addition of an educational building in order to provide adequate facilities for the church school and other activities. The drive began Sunday afternoon with J. W. Davis chairman of the fund raising committee. Names of members of the congregation were allocated to a group who met at the church, who were requested to report to him not later than Friday of this week so that he in turn will be able to make a report to the congregation Sunday as to the progress of the drive.

In initial reports it was learned that quite a few members of the congregation were not contacted Sunday due to not being home at the time solicitors called. These solicitors will, however, make back calls during the week in order to secure cash contributions or pledges to the fund.

At Sunday afternoon's meeting Mr. Davis was right much encouraged due to a number of contributions which he had received and the fact that a few checks had been received from friends who are not members of the congregation. He realizes that the amount necessary, which will total between $25,000 and $30,000, is a big undertaking, but expressed confidence that if members of the congregation rally to the present need, the repairs and new addition to the church will materialize.

In event anyone has been missed and desires to make a contribution, Mr. Davis will be delighted to accept it.

VFW Post Sponsors Motorcycle And Car Stunt Show May 26

Exciting Thrills Sched- uled to Be Presented On Hicks Field

Henry G. Quinn, commander of the William H. Coffield, Jr., Post, No. 9280, Veterans of Foreign Wars, announced this week plans for a motorcycle and car stunt show to be presented at Hicks Field next Wednesday, May 26. Two shows will take place, one in the afternoon at 3 o'clock and one at night at 8 o'clock.

Featured in the show will be Captain Putt Mossman and his International Daredevils. Besides Captain Mossman, the following performers will be seen, barring accidents before May 26: Grace Conrad, American champion lady stunt motorcyclist; Mademoiselle Yvonne Montreaux, the French madam who challenges any man to a motorcycle race; Hilma Mossman, formerly Edinburgh, Scotland, lady champion car crash artist;

Ewald Schnitzer of Sacramento, Cal., ace of Mossman's Australian, African, New Zealand and European tours; Kid Henning of Johannesburg, South Africa, crash artist of Mossman's African tour, and Putt Mossman, Jr., seven-year-old mascot and world's youngest motorcycle stunt rider.

This show of two hours duration has traveled around the world three times since 1935. It has played on all six continents of the world and in 44 different countries.

According to local VFW Post officials, this promises to be one of the finest shows ever brought to Edenton. The entire proceeds derived from the show by the VFW will be used for charitable purposes in this and surrounding communities.

Advance sale tickets will be on sale by members of the local VFW Post, who hope a large number will witness this unique and thrilling entertainment.

3rd Army Area Again Leads In Enlistments

Local Station Signed Up 16 Men During Month Of April

For the fourth consecutive month, Army and Air Force recruiters of the Columbia Recruiting District retained leadership of the Third Army Area when they exceeded their monthly quota of 1,080 enlistments by enlisting 1,311 young men in North and South Carolina during April, according to the monthly enlistment report released by Master Sergeant C. B. Cayton, in command of the Elizabeth City Recruiting Station.

The local station enlisted a total of 16 men during the month.

Accent for the month of May, according to Sgt. Cayton, will be placed on the enlisting of young men for direct assignment to the First Cavalry and 11th Airborne Divisions. Both units are presently stationed in Japan, and several members of these two divisions are currently touring the Carolinas for the purpose of stimulating interest in their respective outfits.

In addition, considerable effort will be expanded to contact young men graduating from high school this year to inform them of the educational career opportunities available to the United States Army and United States Air Force.
