

Federation Meeting Held At Fort Raleigh

Dean Leo W. Jenkins of ECTC Speaker For Occasion

The 25th District Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs met in the Lost Colony Theatre on historic Fort Raleigh Thursday, May 20, with the Dare County clubs as hostesses. There were about 200 women from Camden, Chowan, Currituck, Pasquotank, Perquimans and Dare counties attending.

Mrs. M. T. Griffin, president of the 25th District, presided, and the Rev. D. W. Charlton, pastor of the Manteo Methodist Church, gave the invocation.

Melvin R. Daniels, Dare County official, gave the address of welcome in behalf of the county and Manteo and Mrs. H. O. Bridges of the Wanchese Home Demonstration Club in behalf of the Dare County club women.

The response was given by Mrs. J. Wallace Goodwin, president of the Chowan County Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs.

Mrs. P. P. Gregory, vice president of the State Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs, brought greetings in the absence of Mrs. George Apperson, State President, as did Mrs. Louise Meekins of the 16th District Federation of Women's Clubs.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and the treasurer's report was read and accepted. It was moved and seconded that the treasurer turn one-fourth of the amount in the treasury over to Gates and Hertford counties since they had withdrawn from the district.

Robert Midgett of Manteo then sang two selections "Little Gypsy Sweetheart" and "A Little Bit of Heaven" and a quartet composed of Lawrence and Ralph Swain, Johnny Long and Jack Thomas sang "He'll Go With You". These were enjoyed by everyone present.

The County reports were presented in interesting ways, with each of the six counties having accomplished much during the past year. The Chowan County report was given by Mrs. E. L. Winslow and Mrs. R. H. Hollowell.

A delicious picnic lunch was served in the 4-H dining hall at the Manteo Naval Air Station.

At the afternoon session Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, Dean at East Carolina Teachers College, gave one of the most inspiring messages ever heard by club women. He was introduced by Mrs. Pauline S. Alford, Northeastern District Agent.

Dr. Jenkins' subject was "The Well Being of the Family" and he made an appeal to parents for a better understanding between parents and children. He stressed six points that parents should follow in helping their children through life.

They were, selecting their companions in society, selecting a life's profession, choosing a mate, a hobby and deciding on the right kind of amusement. The main point that he stressed was the church. He said that parents should know that it is their responsibility to teach their children that God is entitled to respect by going to church regularly.

The following new officers were then installed by the President: President, Mrs. A. B. Etheridge of Pasquotank County; vice president, Mrs. Earl White, Dare County; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Yon, Currituck County; and song leader, Mrs. Vernon James, of Pasquotank County.

The Federation received and accepted an invitation to meet with the Camden County Federation in 1949.

Twenty-eight Chowan County women attended the meeting, who were as follows: Mesdames S. F. Small, Wallace Goodwin, H. C. Goodwin, R. T. Harrell, C. W. Tynch, R. H. Hollowell, E. L. Winslow, Eleanor Winslow, E. E. Privott, C. J. Hollowell, Ralph Hollowell, J. N. Boyce, Cameron Boyce, Lindsay Evans, J. T. White, C. B. White, W. A. Ward, W. J. Bunch, Elsworth Blanchard, Roy Winslow, C. A. Perry, Rudolph Jordan, N. E. Jordan, Ethel White, L. C. Briggs, Jacob Spivey, and Misses Helen Jones and Rebecca Colwell.

You cannot teach a child to take care of himself unless you will let him try to take care of himself. He will make mistakes; and out of these mistakes will come his wisdom. —H. W. Beecher.

Vets Again Allowed Full Week Schooling

Previous Ruling Provided For Only 15 Hours Per Week

Effective July 1st, veterans having full-time jobs may again be permitted to take a full week's schooling of 25 or more hours, provided the course is essentially vocational in nature, according to Stephen H. Alford, district officer of the State Veterans Commission.

The Veterans Education Committee, the State approving agency for all on-the-job training and educational institutions training former service men under the GI Bill, at its last meeting modified its ruling on this matter. Until this change, the VEC held to the rule that "A school will not be approved for more than 15 hours per week if it is planned for veterans who are regularly employed on a full time basis."

Inquiries at a number of night schools for veterans have disclosed that veterans holding down regular jobs and with families to support have excellent records as to grades and attendance. This was particularly true in vocational courses.

What we truly and earnestly aspire to be, that in some sense we are. The mere aspiration, by changing the frame of the mind, for the moment realizes itself. —Anna Jameson.

VETERANS URGED NOT TO SEND INSURANCE PREMIUMS IN CASH

Veterans who send cash through the mails in payment for premiums on National Service Life Insurance risk losing their money and their insurance protection, the Veterans Administration warns.

Instead of cash, VA urges veterans to use money orders, postal notes (with reverse side filled out in full) or checks. Chances of error also are lessened by using the yellow envelope furnished for mailing to the appropriate office, VA said.

By continually looking upwards, our minds will themselves grow upwards. —Dr. Arnold.
