

George Lane Faces Charge Of Attempted Rape On Colored Girl

Hearing Is Scheduled In Recorder's Court Next Tuesday Morning

George Lane, 30-year-old white man and veteran of World War II, was arrested about 10 o'clock Saturday night by Patrolman S. J. West, charged with assault and attempt to rape a 12-year-old colored girl. At the time of the arrest, police say, Lane was drinking and stated that if he committed the crime as charged he knew nothing about it.

According to police, Lane carried the girl to a toilet at the plant of the Edenton Electric & Water Department on Freemason Street, but her screams attracted her father, who struck Lane several times before the latter ran away.

A preliminary hearing for Lane was scheduled in Recorder's Court Tuesday morning of this week, but was postponed until next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. He was released shortly after his arrest on $1,000 bond.
