

Demonstration Held To Control Weevils

Acre of Maurice Nixon's Cotton Object of Fight Against Pests

A dusting demonstration to control boll weevil was conducted last week on an acre of cotton belonging to Maurice Nixon, son of Mrs. W. A. Nixon, of the Rocky Hook community. A boll weevil count was made on Maurice's cotton by Assistant County Agent Robert Marsh before the dust was applied and the boll weevil infestation was 20%. Three different kinds of dust were used on the cotton. The first 13 rows in the field received an application of 20% Chlordane, the next 14 rows received an application of 10% Chlordane, and the remaining 13 rows received an application of 20% Toxaphene.

All these dusts were put on at the rate of 12 pounds per acre. Each of these dusting materials has proved to be very effective in controlling the boll worm as well as the boll weevil and other destructive cotton insects. The dust was applied with a small two-row dusting machine which has two nozzles for each row. One nozzle was set about midway of the cotton plant and the other one was set so that it would blow dust downward from near the top of the plant. Maurice is fortunate in that his cotton is not so rank that it is impossible to get a dusting machine through it. Boll weevil counts were made in several other fields this week, but since the cotton is so large it is impossible to dust it unless an airplane is used.

Van Don Jones Dies Tuesday Of Last Week

Van Don Jones, highly respected Edenton Negro, died Tuesday morning of last week, his passing coming as a shock to both white and colored friends. Funeral services were held Thursday.

Deceased was one of the oldest citizens of Edenton and spent his entire life in this area. He was engaged in the grocery business on lower Broad Street for many years and had moved his store to North Oakum Street, where he continued in business until a few years ago, when he was forced to retire due to failing health.

He was a faithful church member and regarded as a splendid Christian man. He had no children of his own, but he and his wife, Nellie Jones, who preceded him in death three years ago, were always willing to take and care for many boys and girls who are now successful men and women, contributing their part as good citizens.

He was a member of St. John's Evangelist Church and senior vestryman at the time of his death.

B & P Women's Club Members Picnic At Edenton Air Station

Local Women Urged to Attend District Meeting In Ahoskie

On last Thursday the Edenton Business and Professional Women's Club held its regular monthly meeting in the club house at the base. Mrs. Laura Harrell, hospitality chairman and her committee arranged a picnic, having each member bring her own lunch and drink. On arrival, all the food was placed on a long table, and after a swim in the base pool by a few of the members, everybody helped themselves to fried chicken, country ham, deviled eggs, all kinds of sandwiches, pickles and cakes. On account of a thunderstorm, the picnic was held indoors.

A short business meeting was held afterward, and all had a most enjoyable time, including Bill Privott's two bird dogs, eating everything they could get, from bread to cake.

The district meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club will hold its meeting in Ahoskie, and members of the Edenton club are urged to attend. A dinner meeting will be held in Ahoskie on Tuesday, September 21, at the Municipal Building on Main Street at 7 P. M. Local committee chairmen will contact members of their committee to find out how many will attend, and notify Miss Rebecca Colwell or Miss Mary Lee Copeland before September 11, so that plates may be reserved.

An interesting program is planned, so that Miss Colwell, president of the Edenton club, hopes as many members as possible will attend.

Home Agent Lists Plentiful Foods

Irish Potatoes In Undisputed First Place Fifth Consecutive Month

Irish potatoes are in undisputed first place on the U. S. Department of Agriculture's plentiful foods list for September—the fifth consecutive month in top position, Miss Rebecca Colwell, home demonstration agent for the State College Extension Service, said here this week.

In the second spot on the plentiful list, she said, are grapes, followed closely by celery, tomatoes and apples.

Among other September plentifuls, the home agent added, are canned citrus juices, "which offer an excellent source of cooling summer drinks, please the taste, and add a good supply of nutrients to hot weather diets."

Although orange supplies from Florida are negligible, Miss Colwell explained that California is shipping oranges and lemons in sufficient quantity to keep them on retail markets during the month.

A wide assortment of canned goods—peas, tomato products, apple products, citrus, plums, fruit spreads, and peanut butter—will be plentiful in September to supplement fresh fruit and vegetables on the market, the home agent reported.

Honey, fresh and frozen fish and eggs will continue plentiful during the coming month, and for a newcomer to the list, the Extension agent named pecans. There's a big carry-over of pecans in cold storage, she said, and in addition crop reports indicate a good harvest for this year.
