

Mary Evans Goodwin And Jefferson Davis Sewell Wed Saturday

Ceremony Solemnized In Local Baptist Church By Rev. R. N. Carroll

The marriage of Miss Mary Evans Goodwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Caleb Goodwin of Edenton to Jefferson Davis Sewell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sewell of Monroe, N. C., was solemnized in a formal ceremony at the Edenton Baptist Church on Saturday evening, October 30, at 8 o'clock. The bride's pastor, the Rev. R. N. Carroll, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Miss Agnes Chappell, at the organ, presented a program of nuptial music. George W. Goodwin of Washington, D. C., sang "I Love You" and "Until" and "The Lord's Prayer" for the benediction. Wagner's Bridal Chorus was used as a processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional.

The altar and choir loft of the church were banked with palms and fern and seven branched candelabra held burning tapers. Two large aisle baskets filled with large white chrysanthemums and fern made a lovely setting for the bridal party.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, David K. Goodwin, wore a bridal gown of antique Dutchess satin featuring a fitted bodice and bertha hand embroidered in seed pearls outlining a yoke of imported Chantilly lace. The full skirt with inset of lace and repeating pearl embroidery extended into a cathedral train. Her veil of French illusion fell from a cap of lace and orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

Mrs. M. R. Warden of Fairfield, Connecticut, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Bettie Mintz of Washington, D. C., attended the bride as maid of honor. They wore gowns in autumn leaf shades of antique gold fashioned along lines of the wedding gown but with softly shaped shoulders in folds of satin. They wore matching gloves and hats of satin and carried arm bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids, Miss Dolly Redwine of Monroe, cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Ruth Goodwin, niece of the bride, Miss Ruth Byrum and Miss Kathleen Ward of Columbia, S. C., wore gowns in autumn shades of yellow, brown and green fashioned identically as matron and maid of honor and carried arm bouquets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

Junior bridesmaids were Miss Marion Goodwin of Edenton and Miss Barbara Warden of Fairfield, Conn., nieces of the bride. They wore dresses fashioned after the bridesmaids and carried small bouquets of pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Little Dianne Goodwin, niece of the bride, was flower girl and entered carrying a basket of pom-pom chrysanthemums. Master Earl Henry Goodwin, nephew of the bride, in formal suit, entered carrying the ring on a calla lily.

Penny for penny, America's inflation-conscious housewives get most for their food dollar when they shop for canned fruits and vegetables. Latest available U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics figures show the retail average for all foods is up 116.6 percent over 1935-39. As the chart shows, the group of foods registering the greatest price increase was fresh meats, poultry and fish, while canned fruits and vegetables prices increased the least, only 57.6 percent.

his brother, Philip Sewell of Ahoskie, as best man. Ushers were Marion Woodbury of Wilmington, Jimmy Payne of Winston, Pete Pyle of Monroe, John Neblett of Charlotte, Richard Hammer of Chapel Hill, George Alma Byrum and J. Clarence Leary, Jr., of Edenton.

The bride's mother wore a formal gown of madonna blue satin draped and beaded in crystals in a wheat design. Her corsage was palmer violets.

The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of pale pink lace over silk with moline trimmings and a corsage of orchids.

The bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Virginia Laney Davis, wore a gown of black chiffon velvet with peplum ruffled in satin and a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Sewell attended Louisburg Junior College and graduated from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, where she was a member of Chi Omega Sorority.

Mr. Sewell graduated from Blue Ridge Prep School for Boys in Hendersonville and from the University of North Carolina, where he was a member of Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity. He served in the army as captain in World War II and is now connected with Washington Mills in Fries, Virginia.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their country home near Edenton. Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Byrum greeted the guests and Mr. and Mrs. George Byrum introduced them to the receiving line, which was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Sewell, Mrs. Davis and members of the bridal party. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Goodwin invited guests into the dining

134 Benefit By Old Age Assistance In County

During the month of October 134 persons in Chowan County received old age assistance, with $2,835 being distributed. Twenty-two cases of aid to dependent children received $930 and $268 went to 12 blind aid cases. According to the report of Mrs. J.

Hi-Ho, Mister!

You want to know how to get rich easy? I don't know. Want to know how to cure a cold? I don't know. But I know how to bake biscuits. Good biscuits, that is. Most important thing is to use Silver Mist Flour. That's the way to bake biscuits with flavor, honest-to-goodness flavor that'd make a bullfrog sing soprano and rabbits chase hound dogs. Specially when those Silver Mist biscuits are floating around in ham gravy. Or cream gravy. Or sorghum. Or even left over cold, wrapped around sausages. Sure, because the folks who mill Silver Mist Flour (they been at it since 1776) manage somehow to get all the flavor of the wheat into the flour itself. The Missus tells me they enrich it, too, so you get something called 6-way nourishment, which I reckon is good for what ails you. Anyhow, for good-tasting biscuits, buy Silver Mist Flour.

H. McMullan, superintendent of welfare, $135 was used in five general assistance cases and $33.87 for other financial assistance for five persons in the county and two outside the county.

During the month there were five adult parolees under supervision, 13 received care from Veterans Rehabilitation in cooperation with the Department of Public Welfare, 20 child labor certificates were issued and 26 children received individual service.

Kidneys Must Work Well

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.
