He was married to Anna Mary Spangler, who passed on 33 years ago. Four children, three boys and one girl, are still living.
J. Edwin Bufflap, editor of The Chowan Herald, is the eldest and mightily proud offspring of this most active American.

Auto Accident Fatal To Mrs. Cassie Cox Killed Instantly While On Way to Visit In Washington

Relatives and friends in Edenton were horrified Wednesday morning of last week when news was received that Mrs. Cassie Cox had been instantly killed in an automobile wreck which occurred near Sunbury. Mrs. Cox only a short time before, left the home of her stepmother, Mrs. W. E. Hassell, to drive to Washington, D. C., to spend the Thanksgiving holiday with her daughter, Mrs. Edwin A. Weihe.

Mrs. Cox's car for some reason left the highway and in an effort to turn back on the road, her car skidded and crashed into a truck coming in the opposite direction. Mrs. Cox was apparently instantly killed and the car completely demolished. The driver of the truck was only slightly injured and proceeded with his work shortly after the accident.

Mrs. Cox, 63, was a native of Edenton and the widow of the late E. M. Cox. She made her home part of the time with Mrs. Hassell and had planned to leave this month to spend the winter in Palm Beach, Florida.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Edwin A. Weihe of Washington, D. C.; her stepmother, Mrs. W. E. Hassell; two sisters, Miss Paulina Hassell of Edenton and Mrs. Edith Boutan of New York City, and a brother, James Hassell, of Edenton.

Funeral services were held at the Ziegler Funeral Home Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Rev. Harold W. Gilmer, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, officiating. Interment was made in Beaver Hill Cemetery.

Pallbearers were C. T. Griffin, R. N. Hines, George Wood, Jr., Meredith Jones, Jr., Thomas J. Hoskins, Jr., Edward Wozelka, Ep Debnam and Graham White.
