Capacity Crowd Fills Auditorium At School To See 'Gypsy Rover'

Edenton High School's auditorium was filled to capacity, with late-comers being obliged to stand, Friday night when high school students presented the musical comedy "The Gypsy Rover". The play, according to comment, was one of the most successful ever to be presented at the school, both as to first class entertainment and financially. It was reported that the play netted over $300. Close to 100 students took part in the play and each one executed his part like a veteran. Coaches and directors for the entertainment were Mrs. J. E. Debnam, Mrs. Mary Browning and Miss Dorothy Williams.

Misses Carolyn Swindell and Syble Cayton won tremendous applause as the result of their solos, while Frank Hughes and Miss Swindell in the leading roles displayed talent which won the praise of the large audience. Rhett Miller, too performed very creditably, with his acting causing many laughs.

The 13 principal actors in the play were Frank Hughes, Carolyn Swindell, Carolyn Harrell, Syble Cayton, Jimmy Earnhardt, Rhett Miller, John Ward, Geola Ward, Oscar Griffin, Jack Habit, Gene Spruill, Paul Cayton and Keith Emminizer. Aside from this group others in the cast took part in gypsy choruses, English choruses and a band of gypsy children.

Miss Susan Thigpen, talented Edenton musician, served as pianist for the play.

Chowan Boy Boxing At Naval Air Station

E. Twine Attracting Attention at Florida Base

According to an article in "The Whiting Tower," weekly newspaper of the Naval Auxiliary Air Station at Whiting Field, Milton, Florida, E. Twine, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Twine, is an up and coming pugilist on the station boxing team. Twine was one of the first to sign when the call was sent out for boxing and has never missed a day for work out yet.

Young Twine first entered the service in February of last year. Prior to that time, he hadn't done any boxing, and had his first bout at Great Lakes Training Center. Since joining the team he has taken a great deal of interest in boxing, and says he finds it a good way to keep in shape.

Officials and boxing fans at Whiting Field predict Twine will be worthwhile watching in the future.
