

Chowan Again Goes Over Top As Cancer Drive Comes To End

Mrs. Guy Hobbs, Commander, Gives Final Report

THANKS ALL

$1,076 Raised With the County Goal Set at $1,050

Mrs. Guy Hobbs reported early this week that the final report had been received in connection with the recent cancer drive and that the county exceeded its quota by $26.22. Chowan's quota was set at $1,050, while contributions when tabulated amounted to $1,076.22.

Mrs. Hobbs, who was county commander for this year's cancer drive, is very well pleased with the result, in that the quota was increased from $800 last year. Mrs. Hobbs expressed her thanks and appreciation to all who in any way contributed toward the ultimate success of the venture, especially directing her thanks to the Junior Woman's Club, sponsor of the cancer drive, and the members who worked so hard and faithfully during the effort to raise funds.

Mrs. Hobbs especially singled out the following who had no small part in putting Chowan County over the top in the drive:

Members of the Junior Woman's Club; Fenton Larson, in charge of collections in the white schools; D. F. Walker in the colored schools; Lula Tillett, colored section; Mrs. Bill Cozart, Mrs. Willie Lamb, Mrs. B. L. Knox, Mrs. Louis Harrell, Mrs. Thomas Cross, Mrs. Tom Goodman, Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mrs. W. L. Langdale, Mrs. Thurston Stallings, Mrs. Robert Gray, Mrs. T. B. Smith, Mrs. Preston Cayton, Mrs. Delia Hopkins, Mrs. Ruby Rowell, Mrs. Gwendolyn Smith, Mrs. Pauline Smith, Mrs. Magdaline Basnight, Mrs. Elizabeth R. Wright, Mrs. Viva Wright, Mrs. Gladys Ward, Mrs. R. W. Carden, Mrs. William Wells, Miss Myrtle Waff, Miss Rebecca Colwell, Mrs. Roy Winslow, Mrs. Jacob Spivey, Mrs. McCoy Spivey, Mrs. O. M. Blanchard, Mrs. V. W. Lane, Miss Inez Perry, Mrs. W. M. Chesson, C. P. Harrell, Mrs. P. L. Ward, Mrs. Leroy Bunch, Mrs. Lloyd Chappell, Mrs. J. H. Hollowell, Miss Irene Copeland, Thomas Jackson, Mrs. A. S. Bush, Mrs. Ray Hollowell, Mrs. E. E. Privott, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. M. W. Jackson, Mrs. W. A. Harrell, Mrs. I. E. Halsey, Jr., Mrs. Alvin Byrum, Mrs. O. C. Long, Jr., Mrs. Fred Britton, Mrs. Kermit Perry, Francis Bunch, Mrs. Henry Bunch, Mrs. T. E. Chappell and Mrs. J. M. Boyce.

While Mrs. Hobbs gives much credit for the success of the drive to the various chairmen and canvassers, she says she realizes that without the interest and generosity on the part of those who were solicited for contributions, the drive would have fallen short. She, therefore, extends her thanks not only to the group of workers, but to all who made contributions, large or small.

Lions Club Ladies' Night Next Monday

District Governor Joe Hood Will Be Principal Speaker

Edenton's Lions Club will observe Ladies' Night next Monday night, with the meeting scheduled to be held in the Edenton armory at 7:30 o'clock. The meeting place was changed to the armory due to the large number expected to attend.

Lions and their wives from Hertford and Elizabeth City are expected to turn out in goodly numbers and local Lions will, no doubt, attend 100 per cent.

A feature of the meeting will be an address by Joe W. Hood of Wilmington, District Governor.

Piano Pupils Present Recital On Saturday

Piano pupils of Miss Dorothy Williams will appear in a recital Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the High School auditorium.

A delightful program has been arranged, and the public is not only invited, but urged to attend and listen to the young musicians.

Scrap Paper Drive

Edenton's Junior Chamber of Commerce will stage another scrap paper drive next Sunday afternoon, May 21, when a collection will be made between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock.

The Jaycees are anxious to get all the scrap paper possible, and request anyone who has paper to place it on the front porch or at some convenient place where it can be easily seen by the various collectors.

Charlotte Bunch Is Elected President Of College Group

Local Girl Heads Baptist Student Union at Woman's College

Miss Charlotte Bunch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice L. Bunch, has been elected president of the Baptist Student Union at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

Miss Bunch, a member of the rising Junior class, is a music education student. She is active in many campus activities, having been a YWA circle leader, president of the Sophomore YWCA, publicity director for the Baptist Student Union and reporter for the Music Education Club.

Dr. Geo. Crawford Elected President Chiropractor Group

Edenton Man Now Nomininee For State Vice Presidency

Dr. George T. Crawford of Edenton was honored last week by being elected president of the North Carolina Chiropractor Physicians for the Eastern District, which covers the coastal area from Fayetteville east.

Dr. Crawford was elected president at the quarterly district meeting held at the Ricks Hotel in Rocky Mount Wednesday, May 11. He was installed at an informal banquet following the business meeting.

Under the new by-laws of the State organization, Dr. Crawford will automatically become a nominee for the vice presidency of the State-wide society at the annual convention which will be held in Raleigh May 27 to 29.

Tom Byrum Installed President Of Jaycees

National and State Officials Unable to Attend Meeting

At a meeting of the Edenton Junior Chamber of Commerce held at Hotel Joseph Hewes Thursday night, officers for the coming year were installed. The officers installed were as follows:

President, Thomas Byrum; vice president, Sam Allen; secretary, R. E. Aiken, Jr.; treasurer, Luther Parks; chairman of the Board of Directors, Frank Holmes; directors for a two year term, Willie O'Neill; Thomas Francis and Mike Byrum; directors for a one-year term, Edward Wozelka, Elbert Copeland and Kermit Layton. Kermit Layton was also installed as State Director.

Though it was expected to have the national and state presidents attend the meeting, it was impossible for them to attend and take part in the installation exercises. Both sent letters which were read at the meeting expressing their regret at not being able to be present, together with a wish that the Edenton Jaycees will have a successful year.

Following the meeting a dance was enjoyed by the Jaycees and their wives.

Youth Day Sunday Will Be Observed At Baptist Church

Young People Will Be In Charge of Both Services

Sunday, May 22, will be Youth Day at the Baptist Church with the youth of the entire Training Union Department carrying out both the morning and night worship services at 11 o'clock and 8 o'clock respectively.

Scott Harrell will be in charge of the order of service for the morning worship and John Ward will be in charge of the night service. Carolyn Harrell will render a vocal solo as the special music for the morning service and the members of the Intermediate and Young People's Unions of the Training Union Department will compose the choir. The speaker for the morning will be the Rev. E. L. Wells. Morning prayers will be led by Rhett Miller and Gene Ward. The morning offering will be received by Gene Ward, John Edward Foxwell, Billy Stallings, Francis Hicks, Gene Spruill, Jasper Gray, Albert Lassiter and Oscar Griffin. Ushers for the morning and night services will be Milton Flynn and Burton Harrison.

Members of the Junior Union of the Training Union Department will compose the choir for the night service. Special music will be rendered by Billy Bunch, Jimmy Harrison, Errol Flynn, and the evening prayers will be led by Scott Harrell, Keith Emminizer and Eddie Ray Stallings. Those speaking on the program, "The Holy Spirit Is Our Leader," are Charles Lee Overman, Carolyn Swindell, Charlotte Leary, Joan Cobb, Billy Earl Russel, Mack Privott, Ray Hollowell, Freddie Duncan, Billy Boyce, Ralph Hawkins, Bruce White and Bobby Pratt will receive the offering.

Miss Agnes Chappell, church organist, will play for the morning service and Mary Ann Elliott will play for the evening service.

The public is cordially invited to worship with these young people at both services.

Miss Joyce Brunson Graduates As Nurse At General Hospital

Exercises Will Be Held In Norfolk Friday Night

Miss Joyce Brunson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brunson, is among a group of 13 nurses who will graduate from the Norfolk General Hospital School of Nursing at commencement exercises which will be held Friday night at 8 o'clock in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Norfolk.

The principal speaker for the graduation exercises will be the Rev. Beverly Tucker White, rector of St. Andrew's Church. William P. Woodley, president of the Board of Directors, will present the diplomas; Miss Mary Lowe Green, RN, director of the School of Nursing, will award school pins, and Mrs. Ruby Felton Brock, vice president of the Norfolk Protestant and Norfolk General Alumnae Association, will present the alumnae scholarship.

A. B. HARLESS AND DAVID HOLTON ARE CO-CHAIRMEN IN CHOWAN COUNTY FOR GETTING OUT VOTE FOR BOND ELECTION

Local Pair Will Spearhead Drive to Get Voters' Support In Special Election June 4 for Huge Bond Issue For Better Schools and Roads

A. B. Harless and David Holton, both of Edenton, have accepted co-chairmanship of Chowan County's Committee for Better Schools and Roads, it is announced by John Marshall, Raleigh, executive secretary of Better Schools and Roads, Inc.

Harless and Holton will spearhead a county drive for the voter's support of the better schools and roads program, which faces its biggest test on June 4, when the people of North Carolina will vote on the issuance of bonds for school and road building. The appointment of the two Chowan County men and their acceptance as leaders of the local effort marks the beginning of a statewide program to inform all Tar Heels of the need for

Jaycees Sponsoring Clean-up Week May 22 To 28 In Edenton

Feature of Affair Will Be Offering Brooms For Sale

Sponsored by the Edenton Junior Chamber of Commerce another clean up week will be observed in Edenton during next week, May 22-28. A rather unique feature of the event will be the sale of good quality brooms. During the week Jaycees will canvass the homes in Edenton for the purpose of selling brooms and on Saturday, May 28, a booth will be installed in the business section, where brooms will be on sale. With the proceeds from the sale of brooms going to the Edenton Band, members will also help to sell brooms.

The clean-up week has the approval of Mayor Leroy Haskett, who appeals to every person in Edenton to cooperate. It is the hope that not only interiors of houses be cleaned up, but that premises in general be made neater and more attractive. "We had a very successful clean-up week just prior to the recent Garden Tour," stated Mayor Haskett, "but there is still room for some improvement. For this reason I am appealing to Edenton people in general to cooperate with the Jaycees to the end that Edenton will be more attractive and at the same time by purchasing brooms our splendid High School Band will benefit by the sales."

Mrs. Clinkscales To Speak To Rotarians

Junior Woman's Club Special Guests at Today's Meeting

James E. Wood, president of the Edenton Rotary Club, announced at last week's meeting that Mrs. Pauline Clinkscales of Elizabeth City will be the principal speaker at the Rotary Club's meeting today (Thursday) at 1 o'clock in the Parish House.

Mrs. Clinkscales has the reputation for being a splendid speaker, so that all Rotarians are urged to attend today's meeting.

As a special feature, members of the Edenton Junior Woman's Club will be guests of the Rotarians. At last week's meeting Col. William B. Rosevear was the principal speaker and during his remarks rehearsed some of his experiences and views about the Army and paid special tribute to the National Guard. He had as his guest William P. Jones, commanding officer of the Edenton National Guard unit.

West Byrum, Jr., Now Home Service Chairman For Red Cross Chapter

Geddes B. Potter, chairman of the Chowan Chapter of the American Red Cross, announced this week that he had appointed West Byrum, Jr., as home service chairman for the Chowan Chapter.

This is a very important position in connection with Red Cross activities, and Mr. Potter is delighted that Mr. Byrum has accepted the appointment.

Local Band Members Outdo Themselves In E. City Band Festival

Play In Raleigh

The Edenton High School Band will leave this (Thursday) morning for Raleigh, where it will participate in the mammoth parade to be held in connection with the Spring Ceremonial of Sudan Temple.

The invitation for the band to take part in the parade was extended at the request of Edenton Shriners, who are confident that the local bandsters will compare favorably with the many other high school bands which will be in the line of march.

Dispatching Clerks At Local Post Office Make High Grades

William Sexton Gets Perfect Mark In Examination

Three dispatching clerks at the Edenton Post Office received splendid ratings in an examination held last week. The examination was conducted at the Post Office by S. B. Davis, division superintendent of railway mail service.

The three clerks examined were William Sexton, Parker Helms and Oscar Duncan. Sexton hung up a perfect mark with 100, while Helms' rating was 99.75 and Duncan's 99.50.

In the prescribed time the clerks handled 624 cards, making 119 separations.

Postmaster C. E. Kramer is proud of the rating made by the trio of clerks, in that their efficiency in the examination is reflected in the service rendered by the local Post Office.

L. P. Felton, Jr., 21, Drowns At Colerain

Falls Overboard While Attempting to Crank Outboard Motor

L. P. Felton, Jr., 21, drowned in the Chowan River at Colerain about 5:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The accident occurred when young Felton was attempting to crank an outboard motor and fell overboard.

Deceased, who was a filling station manager at Colerain, is survived by his wife, Mrs. Annie Minton Felton; a daughter, Tommie Ann Felton; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Felton, and three sisters, Mrs. D. W. Paige of Greenville, Mrs. W. P. Harrell of Edenton and Miss Barbara Ann Felton, at home.

Funeral services will be held at the Colerain Baptist Church this (Thursday) afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with the pastor, the Rev. P. T. Worrell, officiating. Burial will be made in Hillcrest Cemetery at Colerain.

Valhalla Auction Block Will Open Monday, May 23

Francis Hicks Secured Again to Serve as Auctioneer

Next Monday, May 23, the Chowan Mutual Produce Exchange will open its auction block at Valhalla, with a sale scheduled to be held at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Again this summer Francis Hicks, well known auctioneer, will conduct sales, during which beans, cabbage, spinach, butterbeans, corn, cucumbers and other farm products will be sold to the highest bidder.

W. H. Harrell, secretary and treasurer of the Exchange, says that sales will be held promptly at 1 o'clock each day.

Local Youngsters Steal Goodly Portion of Show

WIN MUCH PRAISE

Frank Hughes, Jr., and Carolyn Harrell King And Queen

Members of the Edenton High School's up and coming band, under the direction of Howard Williams, outdid themselves in the Tidewater Albemarle Band Festival held in Elizabeth City Thursday and Friday of last week, and as a result won a great deal of praise in competition with hundreds of youthful musicians from Eastern Carolina and Virginia. In the line of march of the parade, the Edenton Band was greeted with applause that exceeded any of the other bands, according to many people who witnessed the various programs, and in other phases of the festival the local outfit did themselves proud, so that not only parents of the youngsters, but citizens in general are even more proud of the band than ever before.

That the feeling of pride is not confined to Edenton people alone, is reflected in a letter received by Band Director Williams from George Bennett, director of the famous Elizabeth City High School Band. "The Edenton Band had the best looking members and uniforms," said Mr. Bennett, "and it was one of the best bands participating in the festival." That the local outfit made a decided hit during the festival was evident by the many other complimentary remarks heard during the celebration.

Frank Hughes, Jr., and Carolyn Harrell were crowned King and Queen respectively of the Edenton Band, with crowns being placed on their heads by Governor Kerr Scott. Each band participating in the festival had a King and Queen, all of whom were crowned by the Governor.

Individual honors were also won by some of the Edenton Band members in the various competitive contests. Medals were won by Burton Harrison for a trumpet solo. Francis Hicks also won a medal for a trumpet solo, and Mike Malone won a medal for a baritone solo.

A plaque was awarded Sharon Lupton, Richard Hines, Jerry Smith and Marjorie Thigpen, who won first place in a saxophone quartet.

Eight of the band's 13 majorettes also won medals for their outstanding performance. The eight included Betsy Duncan, Marietta Perry, Dorothy Henninger, Mildred Small, Betty Letcher, Kitty Campen, Sybil Cayton and Peggy Williams.

The band as a whole was also awarded a beautiful plaque.

Band Concert In School Auditorium On Friday Night

Silver Offering Will Be Taken to Stage Party For Band Members

Edenton High School's Band is scheduled to present a concert in the High School auditorium Friday night at 8 o'clock. A silver offering will be taken in order to raise funds for the purpose of staging a party or some other form of recreation for members of the band.

The band performed so creditably in last week's Band Festival in Elizabeth City that it is hoped that the auditorium will be filled to capacity as a token of appreciation for the efforts of Director Williams and the progress made by the band members.

White Births Lead Colored During April

For the first time in many months, white births led colored births in Chowan County. According to figures released by the local Health Department, there were 16 white births during April as compared with 13 colored births.

During the month there were four white deaths reported, while there were five colored deaths. Two colored stillbirths were also reported during the month.