Chowan Group At District Banquet

Results of Soil Conservation Emphasized By Speakers

Twenty-three district supervisors and farm leaders attended the Albemarle Soil Conservation District banquet Friday night, May 6. The meal was served in the Episcopal Parish House of Elizabeth City by one of the Episcopal ladies' group.

J. E. Morgan of Pasquotank County, secretary of the Board of District Supervisors, was in charge of the meeting. Mr. Morgan served in the place of Lloyd C. Bunch of Chowan County, chairman of the Albemarle District Board, who was unable to attend on account of illness.

C. D. Fetzler of Elizabeth City, district soil conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service, introduced the speakers of the evening. C. W. Overman, Chowan County Agricultural Extension Agent, was the first speaker. Mr. Overman, after a round of interesting tales, spoke of the results of a joint program which was carried out in his county by the Extension Service, the Production Marketing Administration, Vocational Agriculture Teacher and the Soil Conservation Service cooperating. He emphasized the results obtained in the field of pastures, soil fertility building and farm drainage.

E. B. Garrett of Raleigh, State Director of the Soil Conservation Service in North Carolina, was the second and main speaker of the occasion. Mr. Garrett spoke, among other things, of the needs of various soil conservation practices for the State and of the fine work being done by farmers throughout the State to improve and protect their land. He pointed out many improvements such as greater crop yields, use of more cover crops and better fertilizers, better pastures and drainage improvements.

Following the speeches, the group was shown a sound film which portrayed certain methods of conserving and improving soils and how the work was being accomplished through soil conservation district and other cooperating agencies.

Those attend the meeting from Chowan County were Joe Webb, Jr., and R. H. Hollowell, Chowan County supervisors; C. W. Overman, County Agent; J. M. Price of the Production and Marketing Administration, and George Conner, Jr., and R. C. Jordan of the Soil Conservation Service.

1,230 Lose Driving Licenses In April

Drunken Driving Again Tops List With 722 Revocations

A total of 1,230 persons lost their driver's licenses in April as a result of traffic violations, the Department of Motor Vehicles has announced. Of this number, 933 were revocations and 237 were suspensions. The figure represented a drop of 681 from 1,911 who lost their licenses during the same month last year.

Drunken driving again topped the list of revocations. A total of 722 persons lost their licenses in North Carolina from this cause, as compared with 959 during the same month last year. April revocations brought to 2,474 the number of persons losing their right to drive as a result of this violation.

Ninety-six motorists lost their licenses during the month for driving intoxicated outside the State; 45 for driving drunk and miscellaneous; 17 for driving after license suspended; 28 for driving after license was revoked; 36 for two offenses of driving drunk; 17 for two offenses of reckless driving; 36 for speeding over 75 miles per hour and miscellaneous; nine for larceny of automobile; 34 for transporting liquor; 12 for two offenses of speeding over 55 miles per hour; 98 for failure to maintain proof of financial responsibility, and five for speeding over 75 miles per hour out of the State.

In addition, 556 persons were convicted of reckless driving, which does not require revocation or suspension for first offense.

A total of 5,721 persons were found guilty of moving violations which do not constitute revocations or suspensions on the first offense. Leading this type of violation was speeding, with 2,099 offenders. Other violations included: No driver's license, 1,409; faulty equipment, 262; improper lights, 176; running through red light, 269; miscellaneous traffic violations, 149; driving on wrong side of road, 44; failure to stop at intersection, 43; failure to dim light, 43.

Of the total number of persons convicted of moving violations, 4,724 were North Carolinians and 997 were out-of-state drivers.

Frank E. Parrish Visits Holy Land

Frank E. Parrish, chief fire controlman, USN, of Route 2, Edenton, recently made a tour of Nazareth and the Sea of Galilee while serving aboard the destroyer USS Vogelgesang. The ship was anchored at Haifa, Israel, as a unit of the Sixth Task Fleet and Task Force 167, in the Mediterranean area.

The tour included the famous Church of the Annunciation, the Church of St. Joseph, built over the site of Joseph's old carpenter shop, the Synagogue of Nazareth and the City of Tiberias on the shores of the Sea of Galilee.

Parrish, who entered the naval service September 20, 1932, received his recruit training at the Naval Training Station, Norfolk, Va. Before entering the Navy he attended Edenton High School.
