Edenton Softball League Under Way

Eight Teams Form Circuit; Play Five Games Per Week

Edenton's softball league began Monday evening on the softball diamond where the Varsity Club won from the National Guard by a 10-5 score. The two teams were tied at 5-5 at the sixth inning, when the Varsity Club went on a rampage to score five more runs. The climax came when George Thompson walloped a home run with the bases loaded.

Bill Brotton and Joe Conger divided mound duty for the Varsity Club, while Johnny Asbell and Albert Lassiter were the National Guard hurlers.

Brotton and Conger were touched for eight hits, while the Varsity Club made only three hits. However, costly errors on the part of the Guardsmen was a contributing factor in their defeat. The Guardsmen made nine miscues while the Varsity Club was charged with five.

Thompson led at bat for the Varsity Club, getting two of the three hits. For the National Guard Keeter, Swanner and Lassiter led with two hits each.

The Red Men lost a hard fought game Tuesday evening to Squadron 322 by a score of 3-2. The Red Men held a 2-0 lead until the fifth inning when the Marines scored three runs to win the game.

Eight teams comprise the league, including the Varsity Club, Red Men, Jaycees, National Guard, a team of Navy men in charge of the boat house at the base and the Marine teams, Squadrons 211, 115 and 322.

Coach George Thompson anticipated a great deal of interest in the league, with games scheduled five days a week, Mondays through Fridays. The games start at six o'clock each night, which hour will be changed when lights are installed.

This (Thursday) evening Squadrons 211 and 115 will cross bats.

On Friday evening the National Guard meets Squadron 322.

Monday night the Varsity Club and Navy will play.

Tuesday night Squadron 211 and the Jaycees play.

Wednesday night the Red Men will tackle Squadron 115.
