Turnip And Mustard Greens Develop Into Important Cash Crop

Two old-time Southern menu favorites—turnip and mustard greens—are winning popularity as a year-round table delicacy and are becoming an increasingly important crop for growers and packers of greens.

Tender young leaves of the mustard and turnip plants, cooked in water with salt pork and pepper pods, have long been traditional Southern favorites but have not been widely known in other sections of the country.

However, crop and canning figures now show that these greens are becoming increasingly available in all seasons, and nutrition experts point out that the products offer an interesting taste variant and afford much the same benefits as other leafy vegetables.

Can industry figures show that more than 1,500,000 cases of mustard, turnip and other greens were put up in 1948.

4-H Club Boys Dust Peanuts Second Time

Assistant County Agent Robert Marsh assisted several 4-H Club boys in sulfur dusting their peanuts Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. This was the second application of dust and one more application is to be made in two weeks.

Several visits were made to observe projects which are being conducted by 4-H Club members. Although recent rains have damaged most crops in Chowan County, it is believed that those members who have corn as a project can still expect a fair crop provided they get a good season for the remainder of the summer.

BASEBALL

The Senators threw a scare in the Colonial camp by scoring two runs in each of the eighth and ninth innings, falling short only one run of knotting the score.

The Colonials went into the lead in the third inning, when they scored three runs. Messina walked and Hoch beat out a bunt. Bohonko grounded to short and Hoch was forced at second. Messina scored on a wild throw at first base. Manager Gashouse Parker, who has been on a batting slump, then hit a home run over the temporary fence in center field. The Senators put up an argument that it should be counted a two-base hit, but both umpires went into center field and ruled it a home run.

In the sixth the Colonials added another run. Andrewsh doubled, Murphy popped out and Pavlich doubled, scoring Andrewsh. Two more runs were added in the seventh. Hoch singled, but was forced at second on Bohonko's grounder to short. Parker popped out and Bohonko stole second. Joe Fulghum, next up, hit a home run, with Bohonko scoring ahead of him.

With the Colonials leading 6-1 in the eighth, the Senators put up a strong bid for the game and scored two runs in each of the eighth and ninth innings. In the eighth Bird and Young singled in succession. Allen then hit a stinging single scoring Bird and Young. At this point Bill Herman was sent to the showers and was replaced by Schadel.

In the ninth Titus was safe on an error by Andrewsh. Wright fanned and Black and Bird walked, filling the bases. At this point Johnson was sent to the mound to replace Schadel. Young, next up, popped out, but Allen then singled, scoring two runs.

Titus went the entire route for the Senators, giving up 11 hits, two of which were home run clouts by Parker and Fulghum. Hoch, Parker, Andrewsh and Murphy each made two hits to lead the Colonial attack.

Allen led the Senators at bat with two hits.

Bill Herman started on the mound for the Colonials and had things pretty much his own way until the eighth, when he was tapped for three successive singles. Schadel followed on the mound but was replaced by Johnson in the ninth when the bases were filled as the result of an error and two walks.

Helpful Gal

A young lady stalled her car at a traffic light and couldn't get it started. She tried and tried, while behind her an impatient motorist honked his horn steadily. Finally she got out and walked back.

"I'm awfully sorry, but I can't start my car," she told the driver of the other car pleasantly. "If you'll go and start it for me, I'll stay here and lean on your horn."
