

BIG AIR SHOW AT BASE SATURDAY

Road Program Is Approved

Chowan Is Allocated 37 Miles Of Paved Roads In Program

Highway Officials Meet With Commissioners Monday

HARMONIOUS

Repairs to Bridge Will Allow Larger Load Limit

Though no meeting could hardly have been more harmonious, Chowan County Commissioners and State Highway officials devoted all of Monday morning to consideration of the roads in Chowan County under Governor Kerr Scott's road program. Highway officials present at the meeting were H. G. Shelton, First Division Highway Commissioner; W. N. Sprull, First Division engineer, and George K. Mack, First District engineer.

Also present at the meeting were members of the county-wide committee, which recently made a survey of road conditions in the county and met Friday morning to prepare recommendations to the County Commissioners.

In opening his remarks, Commissioner Shelton informed the County Commissioners that under Governor Scott's program, Chowan County will be entitled to 37 miles of all weather or paved roads and 77.4 miles of stabilized roads. He stated that what he wanted was recommendation from the Commissioners which of the roads are considered most essential to be paved first, but requested that two projects now under way in upper Chowan be included, which was done.

W. W. Byrum, chairman of the County Commissioners, took occasion to ask Mr. Shelton about the status of Chowan River bridge, which is now in bad shape, so much so that loads over the bridge have been reduced.

Mr. Shelton stated it has been recommended that the bridge be made wider and a new deck constructed.

However, he said, the project is estimated to cost a million dollars and that no such amount of money is available. Mr. Shelton did say, however, that the Highway Commission is proceeding at once to repair or jack up the present piling. He could not give a definite time when this work will be completed, for working days depend to a great extent on wind and rough water. Mr. Shelton added some encouragement by the statement that after the piles are jacked up, it will be possible to increase the load limit from 11 tons to 14 tons.

Mr. Shelton also urged the County Commissioners to be more careful in making recommendations for the

Wilson Enlightens Rotary Club About Chowan's Hospital

Active Trustee Speaker At Meeting Held Last Week

Marvin Wilson, one of the Chowan Hospital trustees, who has done a considerable amount of work in connection with a hospital, was the principal speaker at last week's Rotary meeting and presented a very interesting and informative address regarding the progress of a hospital for Chowan County.

Mr. Wilson informed the Rotarians that bids for a new hospital will be opened today (Thursday) and it is hoped actual construction will be under way before the month is gone.

Mr. Wilson traced the hospital efforts back several years when a campaign for funds netted $165,000. The movement for a hospital was held in abeyance when the town took over the local air station and subsequently the base hospital was used locally. With the reactivation of the base by the Marines, the need has arisen for a new hospital.

Mr. Wilson said operation of the base hospital has been of incalculable aid in that many problems have been solved and that a splendid organization is now functioning.

The new hospital will have 35 beds and the cost is not expected to exceed $850,000, of which amount the county will be required to pay 31 1/2 percent. The remainder will be furnished from State and Federal funds.

The new hospital will be built on town property on the Suffolk highway just north of Leary Bros. Warehouse.

Big Affair Is Staged to Raise Funds For Local Navy Relief

Announcement has been made that an air demonstration and carnival will be held at the Edenton Marine Corps Air Station next Saturday, August 6, starting at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The air show and carnival has been arranged primarily for the purpose of raising funds for Navy relief, so that it is hoped not only service personnel will attend, but that many civilians from the surrounding territory will be on hand for the air show, as well as enjoy the carnival.

A feature of the air demonstration will be the famous "Marine Phantoms" of the Marine Fighting Squadron 122. This quartet of flyers includes, 1st Lieut. "Dick" Smith, 1st Lieut. "Mac" McMann, 1st Lieut. "Mac" Magill and Major "Doc" Everton.

Another outstanding feature will be several runs by Lieut.-Col. Marion E. Carl of the U. S. Marine Corps, who won the official speed record of the world at Muroc Dry Lake. Col. Carl will complete several runs during the afternoon which should thrill the spectators. Besides, spectators will witness airplanes flying backwards, sideways and straight up and down.

Another added attraction will be a concert by the Flying Marine Band which will include military airs, operatic, classical and popular music.

A small admission will be charged adults at the gate, which will go toward Navy Relief, but children under 12 years of age will be admitted free. Seven valuable door prizes will also be awarded.

Many other prizes will be offered and at the carnival there will be bingo, games of skill, games of chance and many others.

The air demonstration and carnival have been widely advertised, so that it is expected a large crowd will be on hand. Many Edentonians remember a previous air show held at the base several years ago which attracted a tremendous crowd not only from Edenton and Chowan County, but from many nearby places.

Those in charge of the affair feel that those who attend will be well repaid in way of thrills and entertainment, for everything is being done which is calculated to please those who go to the base.

The time is Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock EST, and the place is the Edenton Marine Corps Air Station.
