

Meeting In Plymouth Saturday In Interest Of Historic Highway

Object Is to Advertise Route Traversing 23 Counties In State

Formation of an association to advertise U. S. 64 as History's Highway, connecting Manteo and Murphy under a continuous route number is the object of a meeting that has been called at Plymouth at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning, September 10.

R. Mayne Albright of Raleigh will preside at the meeting, which has been called at the instance of a number of public officials and business men of Washington, Martin and Tyrrell counties.

The meeting will be followed by a Dutch treat luncheon in the famed Country Club dining room. Letters have been mailed to a number of officials of Nash, Edgecombe, Martin, Washington, Tyrrell and Dare counties—calling attention to the meeting, but others are urged to take part in the meeting, and arrangements may be made for the luncheon by notifying Roy Manning of the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce before Saturday.

The immediate objective of the Association is to launch on a statewide basis whereby every one of the 23 counties traversed by U. S. 64 will participate in the Association to advertise the many advantages on this highway. It traverses regions of the State noted for prominence in colonial as well as State history, and connects the most celebrated part of the Carolina seashore with the most interesting mountain scenery in the State.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a beige gabardine suit, brown accessories and an orchid corsage.
