

BPW Card Party An Outstanding Affair

So Successful It Is Planned to Hold Another Shortly

One of the biggest affairs of the season was held in Edenton Tuesday night of last week when the Edenton Business and Professional Women's Club staged a subscription game party that was attended by approximately 175 people. The party was held in the club's new headquarters located at the Joseph Hewes Hotel, and was claimed to be such a huge success that plans are underway for having another such party sometime in January. Proceeds from the event was estimated well over $100, which will go toward purchasing new chairs for the club room.

The club room was attractively decorated with arrangements of beautiful cut flowers and the guests were greeted at the door by Miss Lena Jones. Following termination of several hours of enjoyable play, prizes were conveyed by trays to the individual tables where winners were privileged to choose from any one of the attractively packaged gifts. Excellent prizes were offered by the club and many expressed hope that the organization would continue with a series of parties. Mrs. Ernest Kehayes drew the lucky door prize number and was awarded a home-made cake.

Delightful refreshments of chicken salad and pimento cheese sandwiches, home-made cake and Russian tea were served by the following club members: Mrs. Hazel Leary, Miss Inez Felton, Mrs. Adelaide Chesson, Miss Louise Smith, Miss Mary Lee Copeland, Mrs. Mildred Spruill, Mrs. W. L. Freeman, Miss Lena Jones, Miss Mildred Munden, Miss Evelyn Leary, and Mrs. Lala Smith, chairman of the party arrangement committee.

The club wishes to express its profound appreciation to all who contributed toward making the party the success it was, and especially to the Williford and Ziegler Funeral Homes; the Edenton High School Band, Joseph Hewes Hotel, Triangle Service Station and Mrs. Laura Harrell for use of chairs, and all others who provided tables and chairs; Ernest Kehayes for floor fan; J. H. Conger, for table favors; donation of home-made cake by Mrs. Dick Leary for door prize, and Mrs. Edward Speight and Mrs. J. J. Long who also contributed cakes; Malone's store and Hotel for use of China, Lula White Florist, Mrs. R. F. Tuttle for cash donations, and Percy Smith for use of truck and labor.
