allows eight per day, 16 in possession and 100 per season.

The wild turkey season will also be open through January 31 with the bag limit allowing one per day, two in possession and three per season.

Open season for rabbits extends through January 31 with a bag limit of seven per day, 14 in possession and no limit for the season.

Mr. Evans also calls attention to the requirement by law to make a declaration of game animals or birds held in houses or refrigerated compartments during the closed season. Blanks must be filled out which specify the number of pieces or parts of game held in storage, as well as the place where it is stored. These blanks can be secured at freezer locker plants or from Evans at his home. Mr. Evans emphasizes the importance of this requirement, stating that it might be embarrassing to someone if the law is disregarded.
