

Two Very Important Deadlines For Vets

J. L. Wiggins Ready to Give Any Assistance Necessary

Two important deadlines for North Carolina veterans are at hand, Stephen H. Alford, district officer of the North Carolina Veterans Commission warns.

The first affects those veterans who have service-connected disabilities of 50 per cent. They have until December 1 to submit evidence of relationship and dependency to qualify for dependency allowances effective on that date. Formerly this benefit was restricted to those with 60% disabilities.

Veterans who can qualify for this benefit should not assume that their records with the federal government are complete in this respect. An assumption of this kind, in error, could mean that payments would not become effective until date the evidence was received. Once Veterans Administration has information that veterans are claiming dependents such veterans have five months to prove such relationship.

The second deadline affects veterans with service-connected disabilities who permitted their Nation Service Life Insurance to lapse. Veterans have until December 31 to reinstate their insurance without having service-connected disabilities counted against them.

Veterans can obtain application forms from the district office of the North Carolina Veterans Commission, 206 Kramer Building, Elizabeth City, or from Jasper L. Wiggins, County Service Officer, 303 Granville Street, Edenton, who have been advised of these important deadlines and are ready to assist veterans in meeting them.

Miss Grace Eason Bride Of David Ober

The marriage of Miss Lillian Grace Eason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Harvey Eason of Sunbury, to William David Ober, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ober of Edenton, took place Saturday, November 12, at 6 P. M. in Oak Grove Christian Church with the Rev. Earl T. Farrell, officiating in the ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with lighted candles forming an arch, ivy pine and white chrysanthemums.

Miss Norma Riddick, of Whaleyville, Va., played the wedding music and Miss Conrade Jordan, also of Whaleyville, was soloist. Just before the ceremony, Miss Jordan sang, "Because" and "I Love You Truly." She also sang "The Lords Prayer," as a benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Carey W. Eason of Gatesville, wore a gray wool suit with black accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Miss Marilyn Byrum, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a black and white shepherd check suit with black accessories and a corsage of red carnations.

Carl Ober, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Louis Bunch and George Norman Ashley of Edenton.

Mrs. Eason, mother of the bride, wore a black dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Ober, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Norman Eason, sister-in-law of the bride, was mistress of ceremonies. She wore a brown suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Ober left for a short wedding trip.

They will make their home in Rocky Hock.

Ruth Audrey Morris Weds Kenneth Worrell

Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Morris announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Audrey to Kenneth J. Worrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Worrell of Como, N. C.

The wedding took place on Thursday, November 24, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon at the Rocky Hock Baptist parsonage. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ed Gordon, pastor of the Rocky Hock Baptist church in the presence of a few relatives.

The bride wore a gray suit with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

After a northern wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Edenton, where Mr. Worrell is employed at the B. B. H. Motor Co.
