

Mack Privott Wins Varsity Club Trophy

Paulette Lane Only Six Points Behind For Coveted Honor

Edenton Varsity Club's annual award for the most outstanding football player of the season was awarded to Mack Privott, stellar backfield ace for the Aces. The award was made at chapel exercises held in the school Wednesday morning of last week.

Young Privott led Paulette Lane, fullback, for the honor by only six points, Privott getting 122 points and Lane 116. Earl Minshew came in third with 113 votes. Other Aces to receive more than 50 votes were Earl Goodwin, Keith Emminizer, Hawk Crummev and Mickey Wright. Entering into the award each year are attitude, cooperation, leadership, ability and sportsmanship.

Presentation of the trophy was made by Ernest Ward, who pointed out the qualifications to be a winner. During the exercises Coach George Thompson also presented monogram sweaters to 18 members of the Aces' 1949 squad. Those receiving sweaters were Ernest White, Keith Emminizer, Donald Batton, Bobby Bunch, Mickey Wright, Gene Taylor, Jackie Gray, Hawk Crummev, Mack Privott, Raymond White, Haywood Rogerson, Charles Morgan, Billy Bond, Frank Hughes, Richard Hoskins, Earl Minshew, Earl Goodwin and Paulette Lane.

16 Games Comprise Schedule For Aces

Loss of Regulars Hard Blow to Basketball Outlook

With the football season ended, Edenton's Aces are now turning their attention to basketball and Coach George Thompson is now engaged in rounding out a team. Prospects are not so bright for the court season with four of last year's regulars missing, Russell Wheeler, Al Habit, Jack Habit and Malcolm Eason.

The nucleus of this year's team includes Paulette Lane, Earl Goodwin, Emmett Eason, John Dobson, Billy Gardner, Merrill Layton and Charles Overman.

The Aces have 16 games scheduled as follows:

December 16—Hertford, here; January 3—open; January 6—Washington, there, in the conference opener; January 10—Greenville, here; January 13—Elizabeth City, there; January 17—Kinston, here; January 20—Williamston, there; January 24—New Bern, here; January 27—Roanoke Rapids, there; January 31—Washington, here; February 3—Greenville, there; February 7—Elizabeth City, here; February 10—Kinston, there; February 17—New Bern, there; February 21—Williamston, here; February 22—Roanoke Rapids, here.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of mother, who died November 11, 1944:
They say that Heaven is a beautiful place, always bright and fair, But to us it seems more beautiful, for we know now you are there.

Many times we looked toward Heaven and prayed you wouldn't be taken away, But our prayers were never answered though we'll understand it all some day.

God saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb, So He took you to a beautiful home, and left us here to pine.

How were we to know, dear Mom, to us you brought new life? You put your hand on our heaped up heart and cast away the strife.

You'll never know of the pain, dear Mom, of the nights bereft of sleep, Of the tears we shed and prayers we said and the promise we tried to keep.

Deep in our hearts lies a picture more precious than silver or gold. 'Tis a picture of our dear Mother whose memory will never grow old.

Now somewhere back of the sunset, where loveliness never dies, You live in the land of Glory with the blue and the gold of the skies.
—Written by Cora Wright for our Mother.

MRS. W. B. CAYTON.

High School News

By GLENN TWIDDY

There was a basketball clinic conducted by the Wake Forest basketball coach and players at the Edenton armory December 5th. The clinic began at 3:30, rules interpretation at 7 o'clock and a scrimmage game between the Marines and the Wake Forest team at 8 o'clock. Wake Forest won by a score of 87-27. This was sponsored by the Edenton Varsity Club.

The Student Council, in regular session on November 7, voted to amend Article VI, Section I of the constitution to read as follows: "The regular meetings of the Student Council shall be held weekly. The time and place shall be designated by the principal and the Student Council president." It was voted on and passed by secret ballot.

The Glee Club gave a performance for the Lions Club the Monday after Thanksgiving. They also sang for the PTA Tuesday, December 6th.

The FHA will give a Christmas dance Friday, December 9, in the Edenton armory. This is the second year for the FHA Club and it is progressing nicely.

New Stewards Elected At Methodist Church

At a meeting of the Board of Stewards of the Methodist Church held Wednesday night of last week two new members were elected. The two new stewards are Dr. A. F. Downum and J. R. Dulaney. They were officially accepted at the quarterly conference held at the Methodist Church Sunday morning.

Downum and Dulaney succeed the late J. W. Cates and J. O. Creech, who left Edenton.
