

Bonner Speaker At Farm Bureau Meet

On Program at Winton Following Flood Control Hearing

Congressman Herbert C. Bonner will discuss cotton and peanut quotas and legislation on future farm programs Monday night, March 6, when he speaks before the Hertford County Farm Bureau in Winton. The First District Representative will speak in the court house at Winton at eight o'clock. Mr. Bonner accepted the invitation today after being invited to speak to the Hertford County farmers by Hertford Farm Bureau President W. D. Bowles. The Congressman is scheduled to attend the Chowan River Flood Control hearing at Winton Monday morning at ten o'clock.

Edenton Youth Wins Award In Yokohama

Pfc. Thomas E. Green, son of George Austen, 211 North Oakum Street, a member of the 567th Medical Ambulance Company stationed in Yokohama, Japan, was the recent winner of the "Driver of the Week" award of the Yokohama Motor Command. By a process of inspection and elimination, beginning at the squad level, going through the platoon and company, Private Green emerged successfully through the battalion inspection. He received a three-day pass and a certificate of commendation from the commanding officer of the Yokohama Motor Command. Entering the Army in June, 1948, Private Green took his technical training in Brook Army Medical School in Fort Sam Houston, Texas. He arrived in Japan in December, 1948.

Youth For Christ Rally Held At Wenona Church

The monthly meeting of the Youth for Christ Rally was held at Wenona Church of Christ Sunday, February 26, with Vice-President Joyce Snell, presiding. An interesting program of tricks and special singing was enjoyed by all. Miss Nellie Mae Warren, a graduate of Atlanta Christian College, Atlanta, G., made an impressive and inspiring talk on "The Church for All and All for the Church." These rallies are steadily growing each month and those in charge would like to urge each and everyone to try to attend them. The March rally will be held at Phillip Church of Christ.
