The Rudolphs, residents of Seattle, Wash., and teachers in the public schools there, were married last June 10. They met a year ago while attending Seattle University. Rudolph was with the Marine Corps 26 months in the Pacific during the last war. ## Forest Warden White Takes Training Course

Frank V. White, County Forest Warden, has just returned from State College Training Camp of Hoffman Forest, where he took a course in equipment operation, fire plans, advance radio, fire suppression methods, maps and towermen training, damage appraisal, forest management, information and education and field problems. As a result of this training, he feels that he is better able to cope with the forest fire problems. He is confident that he can explain any forest problem confronting Chowan County residents and is anxious to be of any service.

Mr. White calls attention to the hunting season, one of the principal sources of forest fires. He urges all hunters to be very careful in the fields and woods, to see that all matches, cigarettes and cigars are out before leaving. He points out that a little care on the part of hunters might prevent a disastrous forest fire.

Think twice today
when you buy a truck!

THAT new truck you're considering may have to last a long time. So you'll be wise to look at a GMC for these important reasons:

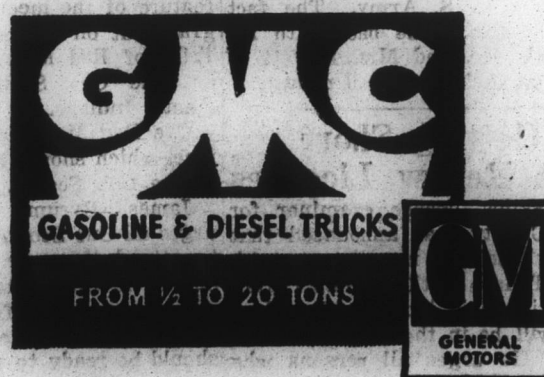

GMC's are built by the world's largest exclusive manufacturer of commercial vehicles—with the broadest truck engineering experience.

GMC's are real trucks. Engine, transmission and frame, as well as cab and axles, are all specially truck-built to give you longer service.

GMC truck-built engines have high horsepower with higher sustained torque—greater pulling power. They are built to give extra years of service with less maintenance.

GMC extra-value features include Synchro-Mesh transmission, Tocco-hardened crankshaft, full-pressure lubrication, recirculating ball-bearing steering gear, air-plane-type bearings and Lifetime Weather-sealed cabs as standard equipment on practically all models from 1/2 ton up.

That's why more truckers are buying GMC's today than ever before—experience proves them best in the long haul!
