

THE SENIOR NEWSLETTER

By HAZEL LEARY

Hello Friends: Why does it always have to rain whenever anyone plans a big day? That is one of the mysteries of life that I will never understand. You know, of course, that I'm thinking about our trip to the State Fair last Thursday in particular. Yes, it rained, in fact it poured!!! You should have seen us on the way home! But we enjoyed every minute of it.

What's that I hear? Is it a trumpet? Why, yes, it is, and look who's playing it. It's Milton Ward Flynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Flynn. Milton, who had a birthday on October 14, was born here in Edenton and started school here. He has just about reached the point where he is ready to finish school here also. Since the band organized in his Sophomore year he has been a member. The Student Council claimed his attention in his Freshman year.

Milton is a nice, easy-going fellow who gets along well with everyone. "Huh" is the way he usually answers everyone even at his part time job at the Triangle. Believe it or not!!! he prefers Edenton girls. Tinkering with radios is Milton's hobby and he would like to develop that hobby and become a radio electrical engineer someday. Good luck, Milton, and don't catch any "live wires."

Next we have a young lady who considers school as her part-time job because she spends more of her time baby-sitting than doing anything else. Her name is Jacqueline Hope Langdale and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Langdale. Her life and school career were both started here in Edenton. Her two main extra-curricular activities in which she has been most interested in is the F. H. A. Club and the Glee Club.

Ask "Jackie", (as we all affectionately call her) a question and she'll say "cause" everytime. Even to her current boy friend, Theo, that's all she will say (or so she says; we've heard differently). Her favorite past-time is listening to records and "Theo." Don't believe a word he says, Jackie. She hasn't definitely decided on her future plans, but if what a certain fortune-teller told her comes true, someone else will decide for her. Control your temper, Jackie, I'm only teasing you. I guess I'd better start running now because she's going to get me for this. See you all later. I hope!!!

We are proud to present this list of the Senior Class Honor Roll. These are the names of the people who made 90 or higher on their first six weeks average. Keep up the good work, and let's see more join them. They are as follows:

Democrats Predict Victory November 7 Party Completes Tour After Holding Nine Big Rallies

The Democratic Party this week completed an extensive tour of North Carolina by its leading speakers and officials when the Democratic caravan seeking votes conducted rallies at Raleigh, Reidsville and Greensboro. Previously, nine rallies had been conducted in other sections of the state.

Declaring that he was greatly encouraged by the reception accorded the caravan on its twelve appearances in the Congressional Districts, Everett

Jordan, Chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, and active head of the campaign for votes, said that in every district the speakers had been received by enthusiastic groups of men and women and with one or two exceptions the rallies had attracted a much greater number of citizens than in previous years.

Predicting a handsome majority for the Democratic Party in the General Election on November 7th, Mr. Jordan said that he believed the enthusiasm manifested at the rallies expressed the general sentiment of the people in their approval of the Democratic Party in its management of affairs of the State and Nation. He said that the only thing which could cut the Democratic vote in his opinion would be over-confidence on the part of the voters who might feel that since victory is sure it is not necessary to go to the polls. He urged every Democrat to be sure and vote on November 7th, and he invited all Republicans interested in good government to come over into the Democratic fold.

During the past four weeks rallies have been conducted at Slyvia, Marion, Morganton, Statesville, Lexington, Whiteville, Greenville, Tarboro and Goldsboro. At each of the rallies the major speakers have joined in urging that the full ticket of the Democratic Party be elected and stress has been laid on the fact that the primary is over and all Democrats should unite to fight the common enemy, the Republicans. Taking the lead in stressing this theme were Governor W. Kerr Scott, Senator Frank P. Graham, Senator Clyde R. Hoey and Willis Smith, Democratic nominee for the Senate. Others who have taken part in the rallies and have made a few remarks from time to time were Harry McMillan, Attorney General; Secretary of State, Thad Eure; Commissioner of Agriculture, L. Y. Ballentine; State Treasurer, Brandon Hodges; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Clyde Erwin; Commissioner of Labor, Forrest Shuford; State Auditor, Henry Bridges, and Commissioner of Insurance, Waldo Cheek; former Senator William B. Umstead and Robert B. Williams, Jr., of Asheville, president of the Young Democratic Clubs in the State. The speakers have also urged the adoption of the five constitutional amendments which will be submitted to the people, and Chairman Jordan urged the voters to give serious thought to these amendments and to give their approval. These amendments provide for higher pay for the Legislators, safeguards to protect the inviolability to the Employees Retirement Fund of the State, and three amendments providing for reforms in the Judicial System.
