THE SENIOR NEWSLETTER

By HAZEL LEARY

Hi Friends: Well, here I am back again. Come rain or shine, snow or blow, nothing stops the Senior Class from their various activities. I'm glad, too, because if they didn't do anything, I wouldn't have anything to write about.

write about.
The class meeting was held as usual on Thursday. Among the other things that we did during the meet-ing was to hold an election. The purpose of this elec-tion was to elect a class poet and testator. Congratu-lations are in order for Jane Spry, who was elected poet and Sherwood Chesson, who was elected testator. Now that we're through with the latest news, we'll go on to news that started way back in 1933, when Mr. and Mrs. H. L. White became the proud parents of a little boy by the name of Raymond Henry White. Little Raymond started to school at Suffolk, where he went until he was a freshman (and we could not

"I was amazed with the spic-and-span appearance of the Bamby bakery. It is truly as clean as any woman's kitchen, and that's important!"

When you see how Bamby is made you know you're getting clean, wholesome bread. From gleaming automatic ovens comes Bamby at its best.
