

State Observes 50th Anniversary Of Gov. Aycock's Inaugural

The 50th anniversary of Governor Charles B. Aycock's inauguration January 15, 1901 was commemorated by the General Assembly in joint session Monday night, January 15. The main address was made by Senator Clyde R. Hoey, himself a former Governor. The photo herewith shows Governor Aycock as he appeared 50 years ago and the following extracts from his 1901 Inaugural may still be read with profit by all good citizens:

Universal Education—On a hundred platforms, to half the voters of the state, in the late campaign, I pledged the state, its strength, its heart, its wealth, to universal education. I promised the illiterate poor man bound to a life of toil and struggle and poverty, that life should be brighter for him and the partner of his sorrows and joys. I pledged the wealth of the state to the education of his children . . . It shall be my constant aim and effort during the four years that I shall endeavor to serve the people of this state to redeem this most solemn of all our pledges. If more taxes are required to carry out this promise to the people, more taxes must be levied.

Election Laws—I shall confidently expect the gentlemen of the Legislature, without regard to party, to frame an election law fair in every purpose, clean in every detail, and to provide machinery by which every man qualified under our Constitution shall be able to vote and shall know that his vote is effective. We can have safety, security and integrity on no other basis.

Duty to the Negro—It was necessary to the safety of the state to base suffrage on capacity to exercise it wisely. This results in excluding a great number of Negroes from the ballot. But their right to life, liberty, property and justice must be even more carefully safeguarded than ever . . . Universal justice is the perpetual decree of Almighty God, and we are entrusted with power not for our good alone, but for the Negro as well. If we fail to administer equal and exact justice to the Negro whom we deprive of suffrage, we shall in the fulness of time lose power ourselves, for we must know that the God who is Love trusts no people with authority for the purpose of enabling them to do injustice to the weak.

Freer Speech—With the education of the whole people, with a fair and impartial election law, with peace everywhere, there will be nothing to prevent us from working out the high destiny of our state. Thought will be set free, opinion can have its full sway, and every man will be able to declare the feelings of his heart. Discussion can take the place of abuse, and argument supplant passionate oratory.

Equal Justice to All—I shall strive to be a just Governor of all the people, without regard to party, color or creed. The law will be enforced with impartiality. No man's petition shall go unheard and unconsidered because he differs from me in politics or in color . . . No man is so high that the law shall not be enforced against him, and no man so low that it shall not reach down to him to lift him up if may be and set him on his feet again and bid him god-speed to better things.

With an Humble Heart—I come to the work humbly, with deep anxiety and with an earnest desire to serve the people well . . . Chosen by my party unanimously, elected by the people by a majority such as has never been given to any other man, I am bound by every obligation to serve to my utmost. The task is difficult. I shall make mistakes. I shall need the support of every citizen in the state . . . But with all the aid which can come from men, I shall fail unless I have the guidance of that God who rules the destinies of states and nations and men, to Whom with reverence I commend this good state and her gracious people.

J. R. Dulaney's Father Dies In Paducah, Ky.
J. H. Dulaney, father of J. R. Dulaney, manager of the Edenton Bell-Tyler store, died at his home in Paducah, Ky., early Saturday morning. He had been an invalid for several years, but became seriously ill only a week ago. Aside from Mr. Dulaney, deceased is survived by his wife and two other sons and a daughter. Mission Picture At Presbyterian Church

"Hope of China" Will Be Shown Sunday Night At 8 O'clock

The Rev. Herman Cathey, pastor of the Edenton Presbyterian Church, announces that a sound motion picture in color, "Hope of China," will be shown at the church Sunday evening, January 21, at 8 o'clock. The picture is sponsored by the China Island Mission and will be shown by Miss Eileen O'Rourke, R. N., of Philadelphia.

Actual missionary work will be seen as well as tribesmen in gorgeous dress, farming cycle, including rice, wheat and opium, and the Tibetan "devil dance." Testimonies of new missionaries will be heard in the film, with the narration by Dr. Ford L. Canfield.

Moody Institute of Science cooperated in the production of this film, which was edited by Dr. and Mrs. Ford L. Canfield after their epic 1949 journey of many thousand miles of China.

On the screen will be seen swarming crowds of Chinese people; the directors of the China Island Mission meeting for conference and prayer; buffalo slushing in rice paddies and farmers transplanting bright green tufts of young rice shoots; heathen at their awful worship; Christian students preaching on the street; a sea of hands upreached for tracts; the gathering of Chinese Christians and church leaders; Tibetans sunning their immense silk Buddha; a presentation of the needs among China's children, tribespeople, and Mohammedans; and the sailing of the '49ers from San Francisco.

CENTER HILL CLUB MEETS

The Center Hill Home Demonstration Club met Thursday, January 4, at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. Garland Asbell.

The new officers presided with Mrs. H. T. Hollowell, president, calling the meeting to order by a short devotional and followed by prayer and the club collect. Mrs. J. Elton Jordan, secretary, called the roll, collected dues, and read minutes of the previous meeting.

Mrs. Hollowell spoke on the proper ways of conducting a meeting and selecting club leaders. Miss Colwell talked about Parliamentary Law and the importance of keeping the achievement sheets up to date.

The Center Hill Community Center was discussed and plans made if possible to hold a joint meeting in February in the building with a covered dish supper.

During the social period Mrs. Asbell served very refreshing fruit salad and fruit cake.
